HAD PLANNED A SLAUGHTER

Many Were Marked for Assassination by Madero is New Charge.

TROUBLE BREWING OUTSIDE CAPITAL

Other Sections of Mexico Not Taking Kindly to the New Regime.

Mexico City, Feb. 21.—Charges which are not altogether substantiated were made today by the new authorities, tending to indicate that the Madero administration in its extremity was contemplating a wholesale slaughter. More than one alleged list of names of those proscribed has been found.

A police officer declares that Francisco Madero personally and verbally gave him a list of forty-three deputies, a number of senators and all the newspaper men, including the foreign correspondents, with instructions to have them assassinated. The police officer said that since this order was not in writing he did not feel obliged to carry it out. Such stories as this have created a bitter sentiment against Francisco Madero and have caused a number of men whose names were on the lists to use their influence to secure summary punishment for the fallen president.

Fears for His Safety.

Solicitude for the personal safety of ex-President Madero was given by Provisional President Huerta to diplomats today as the reason why Madero cannot be removed from the capital for the present. President Huerta related to his visitors the historic attack upon the train which bore ex-President Porfirio Diaz to Vera Cruz on his exile to Europe when Huerta himself was in command of the escort. The president added that the investigation of the records of the Madero administration was being continued with great care.

The fate of Francisco Madero lost first place in the interest of the Mexican populace today on account of the more pressing concern as to the extent to which Mexico is yet in a state of revolution.

More Trouble Brewing.

In spite of the termination of hostilities in the capital and the establishment of a new administration there are indications of widespread trouble in other sections of the country. The disposition of the deposed president and vice-president had not been settled this morning and was still the cause of some anxiety, but this was regarded in many quarters as of little consequence to the nation compared with the problem presented by the existing rebel forces and the prospective rebels.

In view of Gen. Huerta's personal assurance to Senora Madero that her husband would not be killed it is believed that some humane measure will be devised for his elimination from public life.

Gen. Pascual Orozco, according to dispatches from Chihuahua, conferred at Palmoes with David De La Fuente, who has been chosen from the rebel list as a cabinet minister. Orozco will accompany Senor De La Fuente to the federal capital in order personally to express his allegiance to the new government.

General Aguilar and Col. De La Llave, who have been in rebellion in the south, are reported to be in accord with the new administration. On the other hand there has been no intimation from Zapata nor from the elusive Genevo De La O of their conformity with the new order of things.

Four States Refuse.

Beyond this, reports have been received from the north which appear very serious—namely that the governors of four states—Aguascalients, Nuevo Leon, Coahuila and Sonora—have openly refused allegiance. Whether their disaffection will take the form of active rebellion is mere speculation, but it is indicated that Gen. Huerta will at once send additional troops to those districts in order to check any rebellious movement.

Senora Madero, who accompanied her husband in his campaign against Porfiro Diaz, and who has since been his closest adviser, broke down today under the strain of the past few days. She has spent all her time for several days interceding with officials and diplomats to save her husband from death.

SLEET STORM AT CHICAGO.

Traffic is Hampered and Wires Go Down Beneath It.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—A rain and sleet storm began early this morning and the streets and sidewalks were soon covered with a coating of ice. Traffic was delayed on every surface and elevated line in the city.

It was reported that hundreds of telegraph wires leading north, south and west were down. Mails were from one to three hours late on a number of roads. Many minor accidents were reported.

WOULD MAKE LAW DRASTIC

Senate Committee to Urge Radical Anti-Trust Legislation.

ASKS VIOLATIONS DEFINED PLAINLY

Seeks to Take "Discretionary Power" Away from Supreme Court.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Anti-trust legislation of a radical character is to be recommended by the senate committee on interstate commerce in a report early next week. Amendments to the present laws will be urged, to take away from the supreme court the "discretionary power" it now exercises in administering the Sherman law and to define clearly certain forms of illegal combination so business interests will know when they are violating the law.

The report will be the termination of the trust investigation begun by the committee in 1911. The decision of the supreme court that only "unreasonable" restraints upon trade are in violation of the law forms the basis for radical suggestions by the committee, to protect the anti-trust law against what, it is claimed, amounts to "legislative action" by the supreme court.

Would Define Plainly.

To enable business interests to clearly understand what forms of combinations, agreements, contracts or pools are illegal, legislation will be urged to define them in exact terms. Members of the commmittee believe this necessary to protect business interests that desire to act without violating the law, but have no legal standard to inform them whether contemplated actions are within the law.

BOUND TO MARCH IN THAT PARADE

Congressman Will Dodge Work for Suffrage Pageant.

QUORUM IS DOUBTFUL

Washington, Feb. 21.—From all appearances it will be nip and tuck March 3 whether the perturbed and perspiring sergeants-at-arms of the senate and house will be able to keep a quorum in congress during the passage of the suffragist procession on that day.

A number of leading members of both branches, according to a statement given out today at the national suffragist headquarters, have announced that they would march in the parade "even if they had to hide from their respective sergeants-at-arms to do so." Among those quoted as having made the declaration are Senator Poindexter, of Washington, and Representative Victor Murdock, of Kansas.

A majority of the members of congress have been showing signs of nervousness over the prospect of being caught between two fires on the universal suffrage question. The anti-suffragists today appeared in numbers in the halls of the capitol and in the senate and house office buildings. They displayed as much enthusiasm as their suffragist sisters in buttonholing members.

GIVES JOY TO ONE; GRIEF TO ANOTHER

Strange Mix-Up in Children Straightened Out in Philadelphia.

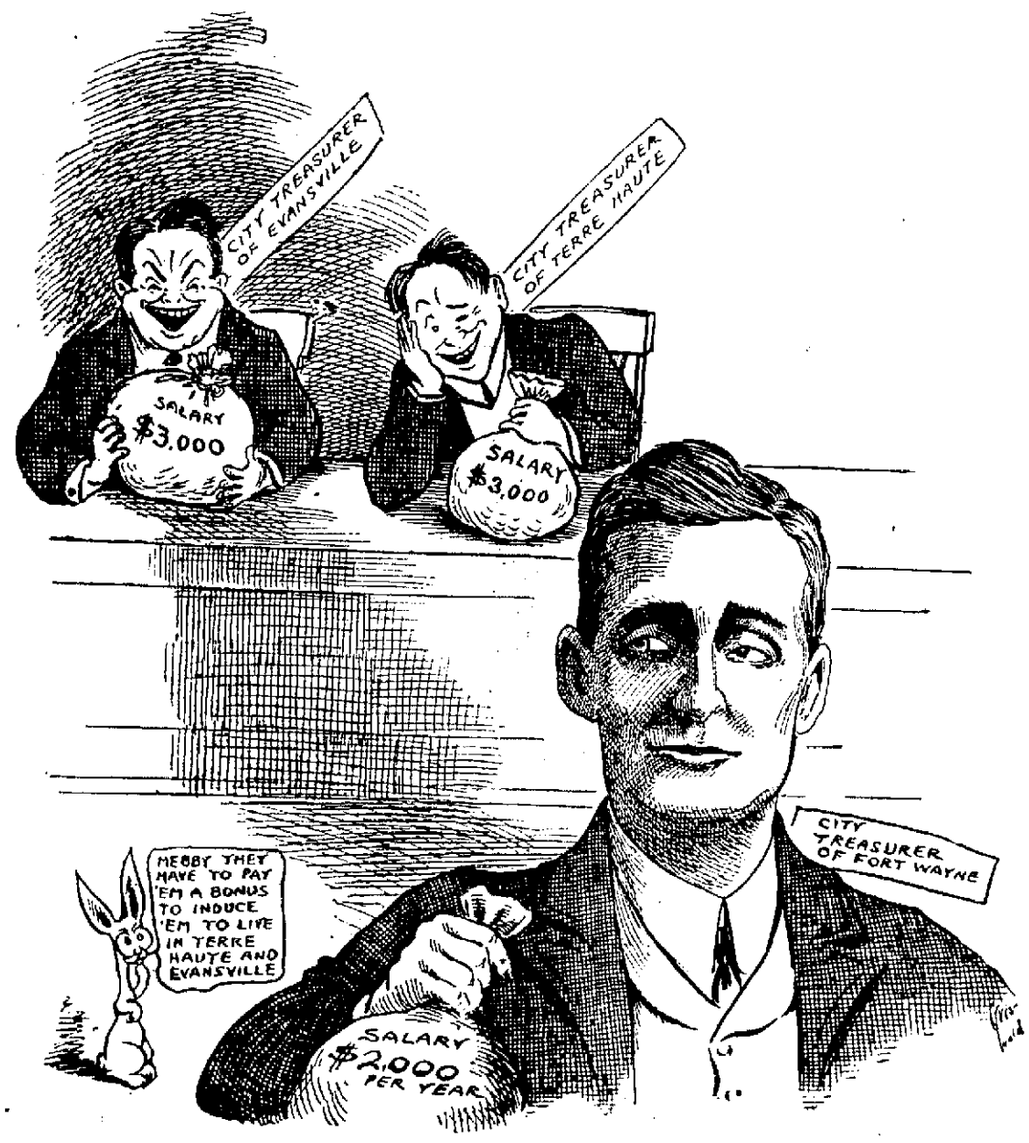

OCCURS IN HOSPITAL

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Deep grief came to one family and cause of joy to another today when a mix-up in the identity of two children who had been sent to the Municipal hospital suffering from scarlet fever was straightened out.

Yesterday a family named Kaufman refused to accept a three-year-old child turned over to them because it was not their little girl. An investigation followed and today the hospital authorities sent for a mother who had been notified two weeks ago that her daughter had died.

When she saw the child sent to the Kaufman family yesterday she instantly recognized it as her daughter and her joy knew no bounds. Two weeks ago she buried a child that was turned over to her in a sealed coffin. The parents of the Kaufman child have visited the hospital and after looking at all the children there did not recognize any of them as their daughter. The hospital authorities are now convinced the dead child is the Kaufman girl but the body will be exhumed for positive identification.

The Indiana law states that city treasurers are entitled to a salary of from $2,000 to $3,000. Evansville and Terre Haute pay their treasurers $3,000 a year, while Fort Wayne allows only $2,000. The bill to fix the salary at $3,000 is now before the legislature.

JUDGE GOFF IS CHOSEN SENATOR

Federal Jurist Triumphs in West Viriginia Battle.

CAUCUS WAS STORMY

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 21.—Federal Judge Nathan B. Goff was elected United States senator from West Virginia by the legislature in joint session today.

At the close of a stormy caucus lasting until daybreak, Judge Goff was decided upon by the republicans of the West Virginia legislature for United States senator. The last ballot stood: Goff, 49; Elkins, 9; Mann, 4, and Edwards, 1.

Judge Goff did not receive enough votes in caucus to insure his election in the legislature today, the last day of the regular session, but his supporters were confident that the required number would be cast for him.

Witnesses Are Missing.

The special grand jury investigating charges of bribery in connection with the United States senatorial campaign was halted today because the authorities were unable to locate two witnesses whose testimony was badly wanted. If the witnesses are located before nightfall a night session will be held. Rumor persists that many indictments will be returned.

STORM IS HEADED TOWARD THE CITY

Palmer Predicts One of Worst Snow and Sleet Storms of Winter.

IS DUE THIS EVENING

According to W. S. Palmer, local weather forecaster, Fort Wayne will be in the grasp of a terrific snow and sleet storm within the next twenty-four hours. If present indications are to be considered the storm will be the worst of the winter.

Reports from the western stations at 7 o'clock this morning tell of snow, rain and sleet. In most instances the storm is preceded by rain, later turning to sleet and freezing. It was reported here that several of the Western Union wires out of Chicago are down on account of the sleet.

Mr. Palmer predicts rain and snow for tonight, with continued snow and colder tomorrow. One year ago today the city was nearly isolated by a heavy snow storm.

WOMEN AFTER A JUDGE'S SCALP

File Petition to Recall San Francisco Police Magistrate.

WHAT THEY ALLEGE

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 21. Perhaps the first instance of a judicial recall election engineered almost entirely by women, is expected to follow the announcement made here yesterday that a recall petition has been filed against

JUDGE CHARLES E. WELLER.

Police Judge Charles E. Weller. The city registrar has ten days in which to ascertain if the number of petitioners is adequate, and if it is, the election must be held within thirty-five days after certification to this effect.

The campaign against Judge Weller was started after he had reduced the bond of a man charged with an offense against a woman. The man ran away.

VACCINE FOR TYPHOID.

War Department Urges Its Use in Other Branches.

Washington, Feb. 21.—In review of the remarkable results achieved from the use of the typhoid vaccination in the army, navy and civilian institutions the war department is to urge and encourage the use of the vaccine in all military organizations. Records for the calendar year just ended show that there were only eighteen cases of typhoid in the United States army, six occurring among those immunized.

PLAY BECOMES REALITY.

Marshall, Ind., Feb. 21.—Playing that he was hanging himself cost the life of Benton Card, 10 years old, yesterday. While his parents were away the boy put a rope around his neck and climbed to a fence. He tied the other end of the rope to a limb of a tree. While he was standing on the fence he lost his balance and fell. The rope choked him to death

STATES ACCEPT 250-YEAR TRUST

Four Will Take Gifts of Evansville Man Under Unique Conditions.

FOR DUMB ANIMALS

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 21.—Adolph Melzer, retired soap manufacturer, philanthropist and friend to dumb animals, today announced acceptance by four states of gifts of $1,000 to be held in trust for 250 years and three months and compounded at four per cent interest semi-annually.

At the end of the terms of years, each of the bequests will amount to $20,155,964.13. The entire sum is to be used by the then governors of the states for the relief of dumb animals of that time. Indiana, Illinois, New York and Mississippi have accepted the offer.

A bill providing for the acceptance of the gift has been prepared for the Indiana legislature. Missouri has rejected the offer for fear no bank could be found that would hold the $1,000 trust on the conditions specified. Five other states, California, Colorado, Kentucky, Massachusetts and Minnesota have not acknowledged Mr. Melzer's communication making the offer.

Less than six months ago Mr. Melzer made the city of Evansville a gift of $1,000 to be held in trust by the City National bank of this city for 250 years. It has been accepted by the city.

AUBURN DAILIES MERGE.

Conducted Along Non-Political Lines—Issue Party Weeklies.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 21. The proprietor of the Auburn Daily Courier, the offices and equipment of which were destroyed by fire two weeks ago, and the proprietor of the Auburn Daily Dispatch met Thursday evening in the rooms of the Auburn Commercial club with a number of representative business men of the city to talk over the daily newspaper situation in Auburn.

As a result of the meeting the Daily Dispatch and the Daily Courier will be consolidated and a new company formed for its conduct. Mr. Buchanan, of the Dispatch, and Mr. McIntyre, of the Courier, the respective proprietors, agreeing to such an arrangement. The business men promised not to support a new daily newspaper if one was started, the opinion being that one daily newspaper was enough for Auburn.

The consolidated daily will be conducted along strictly neutral lines politically. The Weekly Courier and the Weekly Dispatch, one as a democratic paper and the other republican, will be continued. W. H. McIntyre will be at the head of the Courier and J. E. Buchanan at the head of the other. Both are the present proprietors of these papers.

INDICTED FOR ARSON

Abe Franklin is Accused in Finding by Grand Jury Here.

MAN IS PLACED UNDER ARREST

Action in Investigation of Alleged "Arson Trust."

An indictment was returned in the Allen circuit court at 3 o'clock this afternoon charging Abe Franklin with arson and his bond was fixed by Judge John W. Eggeman at $7,500.

In the meantime he had been placed under arrest by Detective Sergeant Walter Immel and at the time the indictment was returned he was locked up at police station.

The indictment grew out of the burning of a store on South Calhoun street on the night of April 6 and it is charged that he set fire to the building and destroyed goods and store property to the value of $1,000. The penalty is fixed under the law at two to twenty-one years in prison with a fine not exceeding double the value of the property destroyed.

Detective Immel followed Franklin all day yesterday and kept him under surveillance. This morning Franklin visited a telegraph office and had a talk over the long distance telephone and as he did not open his store until late in the day he was arrested to prevent his escape.

The store had been opened only a few days when the fire occurred and Franklin and the men associated with him had been in Fort Wayne only a short time, having come here from Chicago and South Bend. There was an explosion that sent the flames almost across Calhoun street and this aroused the suspicion that the place had been fired.

Prosecutor Harry H. Hilgemann called the grand jury especially to investigate this case after he had made a trip to Chicago, where he obtained some valuable information.

It is charged in South Bend that Franklin is one of the men interested in the so-called arson trust that has been under investigation for some months.

There was a small stock on hand and there was a disposition to dispute the settlement of the insurance but nothing was found to warrant a charge of arson at the time and the money was paid and Franklin recently opened again in the same building.

DELAY ANNOYS GOV. RALSTON

He Wants Public Utilities Measure Taken from Senate Caucus.

TWO EFFORTS AT AGREEMENT FAIL

Will Ask to Have Question Threshed Out in Open Senate.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 21.—Annoyed over the delay of the democratic senate caucus in the consideration of the public utilities commission bill, Gov. Ralston today decided to ask that the measure be taken out of caucus and threshed out on the floor of the senate. Two caucuses already have been held when the measure was considered, but little progress was made in reaching an agreement.

The governor was outspoken in his determination that a good and effective public utilities law should be enacted and it was declared at his office today that he believed there was insincerity on the part of some senators and he desired that the future consideration of the bill be open and before the public.

The governor believes that the bill is one of the best in the whole country and that it should not be amended to make it ineffective. He was preparing a message today giving his reasons for wanting the measure taken out of caucus, which he will send to the senate later.

The Governor's Statement.

Relative to the desirability of throwing the public utility bill out of caucus and putting it on the floor of the senate for open discussion Gov. Ralston today gave out the following statement: "I have been careful, since becoming governor, to say and do nothing that would give any one ground for thinking I was trying, as governor, to usurp the functions of the legislature and I shall continue to pursue this course.

"I cannot close my eyes to the fact, however, that the legislature is nearing its constitutional time limit and that many important bills are yet to be acted upon. One of these is the public utilities bill.

"I regret very much the seemingly inability of the senate to make proper headway with this measure. I feel certain that the majority of the democratic senators favor the passage of the bill. Every democratic senator with whom I have spoken on the subject has assured me he was in favor of a good utility law.

"In view of the fact, therefore, that the senate is overwhelmingly democratic and that no democratic senator has declared against a utility law and that all the minority members are giving out that they too are for such legislation, I wish the democratic senators who stand for the right sort of legislation, on this subject would favor calling off the caucus on the Shively-Spencer bill, so that the proposed

BUT ONE LONE MAN ON SUFFRAGISTS' TRAIN.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Only one man, aside from the train crew, will ride on the special which will carry the Illinois suffragists to the March 3rd parade in Washington.

The women hesitated for some time before making this concession, but finally were convinced that there would be some duties to perform which would require the services of a man. The man will be utilized to shine shoes and perform all the menial tasks necessary. Girls will take the place of porters on the sleepers and in the dining cars.

LISTENS TO POLITICS BUT CANNOT TALK BACK.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 21.—President-elect Wilson today made what he hoped would be his last trip to his dentist here before inauguration.

The governor was asked if the dentist talked politics to him.

"Yes," smiled the governor, "but I'm never in a position to answer."

Mr. Wilson expected to be in the dentist's chair three hours, leaving during the afternoon for New York, where he will attend the theater with a friend. He had no engagements of a political character scheduled for the day.

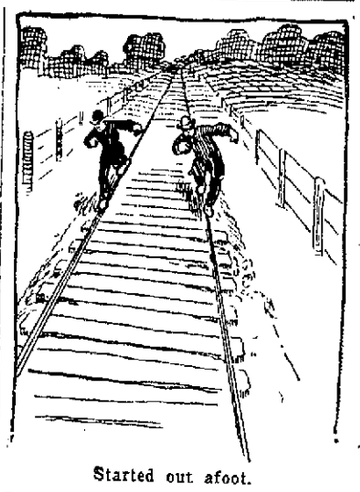

A Chat with the Ada Agent

ON WEDNESDAY of this week, the western division inspection party of the Pennsylvania, composed of of the regular trips between Fort Wayne and Crestline to examine the condition of the several depots along the line. While the party was at Ada, Ohio, their train was side-tracked to allow passenger train No. 21 to pass, west-bound. During the waiting period, Robert Learmonth, chief clerk, and E. T. Wood, division freight agent, members of the party, were engaged in animated conversation with the station agent. In the meantime, the other members sauntered down to their car, and as soon as No. 21 had whizzed past, their special was switched onto the main track and away they went, westward-bound. About this time, Mr. Learmonth and Mr. Wood went out to take the train and found it had gone and left them. The agent immediately wired to Samuel Taylor, the dispatcher in Fort Wayne, stating the case and asking him to instruct the conductor on the special at Lafayette, Ohio, to back up and get the left-overs, as he had no way to feed and care for them. Mr. Taylor asked for further particulars, and then wired back to Messrs. Learmonth and Wood:

"Well, gee whiz! And you fellows in a dry town at that!"

Lafayette is seven miles from Ada; the dispatch reached Lafayette in time to order the special to return to Ada. In the meantime, Messrs. Learmonth and Wood had started out afoot to meet the party which had run away and left them, and had traveled a little over a mile when they clambered aboard.

"And what makes me feel worst," observed Mr. Wood, "is that they didn't miss us at all; anyway, that's what they said."

Started out afoot.

PORTRAIT CAUSE OF MUCH PRAISE

Work of Fort Wayne Artist is on Exhibition This Week.

A PAINTING IN OIL

For several days past a painting of unusual interest has been displayed in the windows of the Fort Wayne Trunk and Leather company's store. And because of it additional honors have fallen upon a Fort Wayne artist.

The painting is a portrait in oil of Col. T. W. H. Brown, of Lakeside, and it was executed by Elmer Stewart, a well known local artist, whose work has taken many prizes throughout the state.

The painting was ordered to hang in the national gallery of Honduras, Central America, because of the fact that Col. Brown, formerly of that country, but for the last two years a resident of this city, took a prominent part in the revolution two years ago that resulted in the establishment of the present party in power.

Col. Brown has charge of the local work of the International Correspondence Schools, which concern he has served for the past twelve years in this and other countries.

The fact that a local man was given the chance to do this portrait is gratifying not only to the artist himself but to the community at large and the fact that it is done so well shows that the commission was not misplaced.

THE DEATHS.

SWIFT.

Alpheus Swift, aged 76 years, a lifelong resident of Allen county, died at 5:25 o'clock Thursday evening at his home in St. Joe township near Robison park. Death was due to pneumonia and followed an illness of one week's duration.

Mr. Swift was born in Fort Wayne and had resided in the county all his life. He was one of the best known farmers in this part of the country. The site of Robison park was at one time a portion of the Swift estate and was purchased from the deceased. Surviving besides the widow he leaves five children by a former marriage. They are John Swift, of Los Angeles; Harry Swift, of Fort Wayne; E. M. Swift, of Kankakee; Mrs. William Stellhorn and Kenneth Swift, of Fort Wayne. Four children by his last marriage are Roland, Bayless, Alpheus, jr., and Miss Alpha Swift. One brother and one sister also survive.

Funeral services at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the residence. Interment at Lindenwood.

GAFER.

Agnes F. Gafer, the 1 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gafer, of 1305 Maud street, died at 6 o'clock this morning after an illness of six weeks. She was the youngest of five children. The father is a painter employed by the Western Gas Construction company.

HANES.

Lucile M. Hanes, aged 21 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hanes, died at 7 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 1910 Walton avenue.

The remains will be shipped to Bourbon, Ind., Saturday morning at 11:15 o'clock. Interment will be made at Sand Ridge cemetery. The deceased is survived by the parents, two brothers and six sisters.

CHARLES.

Louise Charles, infant daughter of Mr and Mrs. Frank Charles, died Thursday. Funeral services were held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Schone & Ankenbruck undertaking parlors.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

DeWald—Funeral services for Henry DeWald Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence, 1025 Barr street, and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

Wahl—Funeral services for Jacob L. Wahl Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 1516 St. Mary's avenue, Rev. Mr. King officiating.

Chaska.—Funeral services for Samuel Chaska Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, 831 West Wayne street, Rabbi Lovitsh officiating. Interment at Lindenwood. Pall bearers have been selected as follows: Honorary—Leopold Freiburger, Herman Freiburger, Samuel Morris, Marx Frank, Barney Bernard, Benjamin Rothschild and Julius Nathan; active—Homer Moses, Frank Currant, Fred Kramer, Al Thurman, Carl Busch and William Brandtmiller.

MR. ELLIOTT BEFORE QUEST CLUB.

Owing to the fact that Harry Fletcher, of Patterson-Fletcher company, has been so busy for the past two weeks he was unable to keep his appointment to address the Quest club at the regular Friday lunch at the Anthony at noon today, his place was taken by Bruce E. Elliott, the local "ad" man, who led in a most interesting discussion of this extensive subject. The club considered this paper one of the best yet presented to the club.

NEW STEP TAKEN IN LIQUOR CASE

Judge John W. Eggeman Appoints Prosecutor to Act.

OTHER COURT MATTER

Judge John W. Eggeman took a new and rather radical step in liquor regulation in the circuit court today when he appointed Prosecutor Harry Hilgemann to act for the county on an appeal filed by Nathan H. Kaplan from the action of the board of county commissioners when it refused to permit him to transfer his liquor license to Alexander J. Lehman.

"This case was brought in here with no evidence except that in the hands of the applicants," said Judge Eggeman, "and I didn't think it ought to be disposed of in that way so I named the prosecutor to come in here and make some sort of a defense.

"There was nothing before me to show why the commissioners had refused to make the transfer and the commissioners were not in position to supply anything. The Proctor law does not provide any means of introducing the testimony for the county so I appointed the prosecutor. I don't know that there is any law on this point, but I believe the statute gives me an inherent right to take the step I have taken." The case was set for hearing on Feb. 27.

Want to Protect Him.

Gordon C. Patton inherited about $6,000 a short time ago and was making good headway distributing it along the rosy path to perdition when he was halted today by action taken in the circuit court.

He was declared an habitual drunkard and the Tri-State Loan and Trust company was made guardian and instructed to take possession of his money. It will be expended for his support under the direction of the judge.

Attacks the Commission.

On the ground that the law establishing the Indiana railroad commission does not provide for a public hearing at which railroad and interurban companies may be heard and given a chance to make a proper showing when orders are given for new depot buildings, the Pennsylvania company has entered a suit in which it asks of the local court an injunction to prevent interference with its depot at Indiana Harbor.

The application as filed by Leonard, Rose & Zollars also says that no instructions have been given as to the kind of a depot that the commission wants erected and that in condemning the building now used as a passenger station the commission is interfering with the company in the control of its own property.

Secured a Decree.

Makes Demand for $25,000.

Mary L. Banet has entered suit in the circuit court against William F. Peters demanding $25,000 damages and charging that he violated his promise to marry her. She also charges that he caused her downfall and that he is the father of her child. The woman in the case formerly worked at the Princess Manufacturing company's plant of which Peters was manager. She is now living in Chicago. Meland and Todd and Julius Limbach filed the suit.

Considers the Price Low.

Luella M. Derbyshire has entered suit against the City of Fort Wayne, alleging that damages amounting to $2,000 allowed by the board of public works for a lot taken in the opening of Cass street is not sufficient. She asks $3,000. Thomas and Townsend filed the suit.

VALUABLE PARKS BELONG TO CITY

Fort Wayne Has 226 Acres and is Seeking to Purchase More.

RANDALL IN A REPORT

According to an estimate completed today by City Engineer Frank Randall, the city of Fort Wayne has 226 acres of valuable park land now and if the efforts to purchase the ground intended to add one to the Eighth ward the total will be increased this year to more than 250.

All of this is valuable property and great strides have been made in the last two years, the most notable additions being the new section of Lakeside park and that land donated by Col. D. N. and S. M. Foster.

Mr. Randall has also compiled to totals and finds that the city has 35.6 miles of asphalt paving, 27.6 of brick, 1.4 of asphalt concrete and 1.6 of tarvia. It also has 4.3 miles of paved alleys, 50 miles of cement walks, 29.5 of sewers, 120.5 of water mains and the city area is 10½ square miles.

Will Not Interfere.

Members of the city administration say that the grade separation at Walton avenue has been so planned that it will not interfere with the elevation of the tracks between that point and Calhoun street when this big task is undertaken.

The special committee on track elevation held a meeting last night at which action was postponed until the members can go over the ground with the board of public works and the city engineer to obtain information on this point.

LARSEN CHALLENGES DAY.

Proposes Motor Boat Race Through Niagara Rapids.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 21.—Capt. Claus Larsen has issued a challenge to Thomas F. Day for a motor boat race through the whirlpool and the rapids. Capt. Larsen has made the trip twice in a motor boat and Mr. Day last summer navigated the Atlantic in a small gasoline power boat.

HONOR MEMORY OF WASHINGTON

ABLE SPEAKERS TALK

Practically every school in the city observed the 171st anniversary of George Washington's birth today with some patriotic exercise. In some of the schools the pupils were given talks by the teachers and reminded of the honor and respect which they owe to the father of their country. At others special speakers were engaged to deliver addresses.

At the Clay school Arthur W. Parry gave an interesting patriotic talk before the seventh and eighth grades at 10 o'clock this morning. The other classes observed the anniversary at various hours during the day with songs and flag drills. The session rooms were beautifully decorated with the colors of the flag.

Rev. Henry B. Master, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, addressed the pupils of the Miner street school at 3 o'clock. The primary grades listened to talks by the teachers, sang songs and gave flag drills.

At the Bloomingdale school the exercises were held under the auspices of the parent-teacher club. Miss Radebaugh, teacher of domestic science, gave an interesting talk on this feature of the school work. Members of the club also gave entertaining talks to the children. The school orchestra played two excellent numbers.

The pupils at the James H. Smart school assembled in the auditorium at 3 o'clock and sang several patriotic songs, followed by music on the victrola. Emma L. Armstrong, principal of the school, addressed the pupils on the character and deeds of Washington.

Rev. A. J. Folsom delivered an address before the children at the Washington school. The pupils sang patriotic songs marched and gave flag drills.

No special speakers were engaged for the Hanna and Harmer schools, but classes were suspended this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the children sang songs and were addressed by the teachers.

Judge O. N. Heaton delivered an address at the Nebraska school at 2 o'clock. The rest of the afternoon was spent in giving flag drills and singing patriotic songs.

All of the other schools had no classes after 2 o'clock and employed the time in giving exercises appropriate to the occasion, but no outside speaker was present.

F. J. Young, former county superintendent of schools, addressed the pupils of the Jefferson school this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Washington's anniversary was celebrated at the high school on Thursday, when Mrs. Frances Haberly Robertson addressed the students.

SUPPLY COMPANY VOTES INCREASE

H. L. Mollet Heads Fort Wayne Builders' Supply Company.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR

Stockholders of the Fort Wayne Builders' Supply company, in annual session Thursday night at the company's offices on Hayden street, heard reports from the officers for the past year and then voted to increase the capital stock from $75,000 to $125,000. Directors were elected as follows:

H. L. Mollet, Henry Hilgeman, Fred Gumpper, Henry Wehrenberg, John Suelzer and John Suelzer, Jr. The directors then elected officers for the coming years as follows:

President—H. L. Mollet.

Vice President—Henry Hilgeman.

Secretary and Treasurer—John Suelzer, Jr.

The company has enjoyed a very prosperous year. The organization is at present experiencing its most successful period, and at the close of the session, stockholders in discussing the affairs expressed unlimited confidence in the future of the company.

RUSSELL REJECTED IT.

Says He Was Offered $20,000 to Release Harry Thaw.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21.—Testifying before Governor Sulzer's committee of inquiry today Dr. John W. Russell, superintendent of Matteawan hospital, said he was offered $20,000 by a lawyer a few weeks ago if he would agree to release Harry K. Thaw. Dr. Russell said he refused. He could not recall the lawyer's name, but said the offer was made in a New York hotel.

THE LOCAL OBSERVANCE.

Extensive Plans for Celebrating Washington's Birthday.

Fort Wayne has made special preparations for the local observance of the 171st anniversary of the birth of George Washington, and the city will in a way assume a holiday spirit. Banks and trust companies will be closed and numerous entertainment programs appropriate to the occasion will be rendered by social and fraternal organizations.

All government offices will be closed. This includes the naval, army and marine recruiting stations, as strict orders to that effect have been received from Washington.

Among other events for the date will be the banquet to be spread tomorrow evening at I. O. O. F. hall, to precede a meeting of local postoffice clerks and carriers.

"CASCARETS" BEST BOWEL CLEANSER

Headache, sour stomach, biliousness and bad taste gone by morning.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Adv.

THE AUTO-TRANSIT LINE TO WARREN

Huntington Men Visit Warren to Push Plans for Traffic Between the Two Cities.

Warren, Ind., February 21.—A party of Huntington men who are interested in the auto-transit system which is soon to be installed in that city, were in Warren this week to meet the business men of Warren in consultation as to the advisability of placing a similar system in operation between Warren and Huntington.

The plan adopted at Huntington is the operation of a big motor bus which will accommodate about twenty people. There are five of these cars and they will be routed on a fixed schedule so that they will pass a given point each half hour.

They propose to extend the service to outlying towns and are anxious to make the initial route reach Warren. They propose to operate two cars, a passenger bus which will make two round trips each day and a freight to make one trip each day. They hope to establish a fixed schedule and accommodate all residents living on the line between Warren and Huntington.

NEXT MAYOR OF GARRETT.

Talk Has Begun About Candidates of the Two Parties.

Garrett, Ind., Feb. 21.—Mayor George Schulthess is so far the only announced candidate for the democratic nomination for mayor and his friends insist that he will have no opposition in the convention.

Republicans have suggested running J. S. Patterson, H. W. Mountz, A. F. Halter, M. W. Johnston and others, including Charles W. Camp, for mayor. The latter was the first mayor elected after Garrett was incorporated as a city and had a great deal of experience in the office.

SEEKS PLACE AS JUDGE.

J. L. Harman Asks Appointment as Judge VanFleet's Successor.

Goshen, Ind., Feb. 21.—Friends of James L. Harman, of Elkhart, are circulating a petition here, asking that Gov. Ralston name Mr. Harman as judge of the Elkhart superior court to fill the vacancy caused by Judge VanFleet going to the seperate superior court given St. Joseph county. In 1910, when James S. Drake was elected circuit judge, Mr. Harman was the democratic nominee and made a good race. The judge appointed by Gov. Ralston will serve until the next general election in the fall of 1914.

TWO FARMS CHANGE OWNERS.

Columbia City, Ind., Feb. 21.—Andrew Ennen, of Noble county, who recently held a public sale has purchased the eighteen acre farm in Union township of Rebecca Martin, the consideration being $2,000 and possession will be given at once. Mrs. Martin then purchased the Alonzo Hoover forty acres in Jefferson township, consideration, $2,600, with possession at once.

ANDREWS' SCHOOL BUILDING.

Andrews, Ind., Feb. 21.—The contract for the building of a $25,000 joint school for Andrews and Dallas township will be let at Andrews Saturday. Sealed bids have been filed with the corporation board of Andrews and the trustee of Dallas township, together with bonds insuring the completion of the work. W. H. Stewart and Chester Boyd, two local contractors, have bid for the job.

SUGAR SEASON IS ON.

Columbia City, Ind., Feb. 21.—R. H. Maring, M. Kaufman, John Grace and Jacob Smith, of Washington and Jefferson townships; Nelson Keller and Perry Williamson, of Cleveland township, and other maple grove owners started their kettles to "biling" this week. The prospect for a good season is great, and the maple syrup run over the county will be in full blast if the weather will hold out.

Nervous Energy

in the human body is similar to electricity in a storage battery. It's the force that "makes things go."

This force—in the body—comes from the digestion and assimilation of Right Food; the kind Nature requires for building and maintaining healthy brain and nerve cells.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

contains the elements Nature has stored in wheat and barley, including the phosphate (grown in the grains)—absolutely necessary, in combination with starches, sugars and albumens of the cereals, for normal cell-building.

You can keep Nervous Energy up to par on Grape-Nuts.

"There's a Reason"

GARRETT HAS MANY CASES OF SMALLPOX

Residents Anxiously Await Outcome as New Cases Are Being Reported Daily.

Garrett, Ind., Feb. 21.—The people of this city anxiously await the developments daily in the smallpox cases and while none have been fatal, many new ones are being added to the list, although it is impossible to learn just how many are down with the disease at present.

Many people are very indignant over the fact that the people who first got the disease were not quarantined as they should have been and thereby prevented all this trouble.

The children from several homes where this disease existed, went to school every day and finally took down sick in school. It was then called "chickenpox" by a very few, although the majority of the local physicians stated that it certainly was smallpox. However, it seemed to go against the grain to even mention the word "smallpox" and caused some of the afflicted ones to get very angry and say many unkind things.

Mothers and fathers are worried over their little ones and many are having them vaccinated. Already there are quite a number of children who have the disease. Shortly after noon Thursday a fireman who just came in on a B. & O. train from Chicago, was found to be suffering with smallpox and was taken from the train to the city jail, where he was kept until about 7 p. m., when he was removed to the Koble home in the south part of the city, which is also under quarantine on account of smallpox. All the members of this family had the disease during the past few weeks, although it was not known what it was until the last two cases developed. Many parents have taken their children from school and are hoping the schools will be closed for a while, at least, until this is gotten under control.

AT ADVANCED AGE.

Death at Warren of Abel Bonifield and Mrs. Margaret Christman.

Warren, Ind. Feb. 21.—Abel Bonifield, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Warren, and father of Dr. W. P. Bonifield, died Thursday at his home following an illness which extended over a period of two years. Death was due to dropsy and asthma. He had for years been a prominent person in the affairs of Warren, having lived there the greater part of his life. He was born at Neptune, Ohio, eighty years ago and when a young man came to Warren.

At the unusual age of 93 years Mrs. Margaret Christman died Thursday at the home of her son, Oscar Christman, in Warren. Death was due to old age. She became seriously ill about two weeks ago and since then her decline was rapid.

AGAIN DOING BUSINESS.

The Manufactory Burned Out by Big Auburn Fire.

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 21.—The Double Fabric Tire company, the establishment which was destroyed by the big court house fire two weeks ago, has started up again and by next week the temporary quarters on North Indiana avenue will be dispatching business about in regular volume. It has been a big job to get the equipment re-established, but such men as W. H. Willennar and A. L. Murray do things fast. Auburn people are happy to see these men get on their feet again.

MRS. POLLY CLARK DEAD.

Avilla, Ind., Feb. 21.—The funeral of Mrs. Polly Clark, whose death occurred at the age of 85 years, took place today from the Swan church. She was a pioneer settler of the county. She is survived by three children, J. S. Clark, of Avilla; Jarvis Clark, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Mary Iddings, of Merrillville. Thirteen grandchildren and nine great-granchildren also survive her.

Miss Laura Keller entertained the A. A. C. club last Friday evening. The evening was spent in playing flinch, the winner of first prize being Miss Laura Keller and of the booby prize, Miss Josie Faulkner.

Wm. Litzenberg was in Fort Wayne on business Monday.

The Messrs. G. Ehresman and Levi Klopfenstine were in Fort Wayne Monday.

Harry Brunner, of Antwerp, was in town Tuesday.

C. F. Moon left Wednesday evening for Hespenia, Mich., where he will fill an engagement with an orchestra during a three days' session of the teachers' and farmers' institute there.

Simon Stucky and Charles Knight have gone to Cincinnati, where they will visit the latter's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ehresman and son, Wayne, spent Sunday with Louis Habegger and family.

Mrs. R. B. Shirley was in Fort Wayne Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Faulkner and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Schepelman and J. E. Augspurger and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wearley.

PAPE'S! BREAKS A COLD AT ONCE

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound ends all grippe misery.

You can surely end Grippe and break up the most severe cold either in head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, by taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound as directed, without interference with your usual duties and with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—accept no substitute—contains no quinine—belongs in every home. Tastes nice.—Adv.

KENDALLVILLE BALL CLUB.

Kendallville, Ind., Feb. 21.—A new baseball association was formed in Kendallville Thursday, the same to be financed by the officials of the Toledo & Chicago Interurban Co., consisting of C. J. Munton, G. M. Patterson, H. W. Bradtmiller and Homer Waterhouse. G. M. Patterson was made president and secretary of the association. Homer Waterhouse vice president and H. W. Bradtmiller treasurer.

BROUGHT TO HOSPITAL.

AVILLA TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Avilla, Ind., Feb. 21.—The incorporation papers which were sent to the secretary of state at Indianapolis recently by the Avilla Mutual Telephone company have been returned to the president, Thomas Kelham, giving the company authority to transact business.

SOLD LIVERY STABLE.

Columbia City, Ind., Feb. 21.—The big Clugston and McLallan building, which, for the past ten years has been operated as a livery stable, was sold Thursday to Richard Claxton, of this city, for the sum of $6,000.

DECATUR NEWS.

Decatur, Ind., Feb. 21. Joseph, aged 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sovine, of Thirteenth street, died this morning from tuberculosis of the skin. He leaves the parents and two sisters, Esther, aged 8, and Maude, aged 2.

Mayor Judson W. Teeple officiated yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the wedding of William Riff and Miss Cora Young at the county clerk's office.

Henry Gerke went to Hoagland to visit with Gus Holbrock, who had both bones of the left lower leg broken when a log rolled from a wagon on which he was helping load them. He is a son of Mrs. Theodore Holbrock, of this city, and a brother of Theodore Holbrock, of Fort Wayne.

Rev. S. H. Baumgartner, of Indianapolis, presiding elder, preached at the Evangelical church last evening and conducted the quarterly conference afterwards.

The funeral of ex-County Recorder William Baughman, who died at Fort Wayne, will be conducted here Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Methodist church. The Decatur Masons will be in charge of the burial.

Mrs. Nancy Noll left yesterday afternoon for Fort Wayne to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Roebuck, held here today. This is the fourth relative lost by Mrs. Noll since the death of her husband, John Noll, last October.

Hon. C. J. Lutz is serving as special judge during the illness of Judge James T. Merryman, who is confined to his home with an attack of acute indigestion since Tuesday afternoon. He will probably not be able to be out this week.

The Shakespeare club will give a Colonial tea on Washington's birthday anniversary from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Heller. Each member is privileged to invite three guests and about eighty will be received by the club.

Mrs. Daniel Railing continues very ill with paralysis at the John Vail home. Her right side is affected, her arm being helpless. Her daughters, Mesdames John Vail and John Rice, who were in Cardwell, Mo., arrived last evening, being summoned here by her illness.

After being held at Berne for the past four years, the next poultry show of the Adams County Poultry association will be held in this city next year. The new officers elected are: President, Charles Oetting; superintendent, D. M. Rice; executive committee, Amos Hirschey, Samuel Simison, John A. Hilty, Mrs. Fannie Christen, Charles Zimmerman, William Dowling, Cal Kunkel.

Mrs. Lucinda Kessler has returned from Lima, O., where she has been with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Hathaway, who is ill.

Mrs. Andrew Moyer and children, Eva and Glendoris, went to Fort Wayne to look for a house. Mr. Moyer is employed by the Bowser company there and the family will move to Fort Wayne as soon as they can secure a house.

The Misses Mabel Weldy and Osee Armstrong, talented readers and musicians, will give a recital next Thursday evening at the Christian church for the benefit of the Ruth circle.

Lawrence and Rose Kleinheinz have gone to attend the funeral of a cousin near Celina, O.

The Misses Gusta Cramer and Gertrude Omlor, of the telephone force, are ill and their absence much depletes the force as there are no substitutes.

Mrs. John Augsburger, of Linn Grove, who went to Woodburn, was accompanied by her son, Elmer.

KENDALLVILLE NEWS.

Kendallville, Ind., Feb. 21.—Miss Gladys Kinsey, of Auburn, has been engaged by the Avilla school board to teach music and drawing in the school. Miss Julia Wolff, of this city, occupied that position until a short time ago, when she accepted a position at Los Angeles, Cal.

Kendallville lodge, No. 109, Knights of Pythias, will have an annual roll call meeting at the Castle hall Tuesday evening, Feb. 25. There will be music, short talks and recitations. Also letters from absent members.

Mrs. Victor Rinehart has returned from Hastings, Mich., where she was called by the illness of the family of E. E. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, of New York city, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Hardy. Mr. Elliott and the doctor are cousins.

Kendallville has a base ball team this year and a good one. An organization has been effected and plans will be pushed. C. J. Munton, G. M. Patterson, H. W. Bradmiller and Homer Waterhouse have leased Waterhouse park for a period of three years. They have engaged Percy Murray to manage the team. At the organization meeting of the four partners, who secured the lease and will own the team the following officers were elected: G. M. Patterson, president and secretary; Homer Waterhouse, vice president; H. W. Brandmiller, treasurer. The team will be affiliated with the trolley league that will, in due time, be reorganized.

The Culture club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. C. E. Baker at her home on North Main street. Mrs. Max Humphries read a paper on "Foreign Rulers." There was a musical program from Mozart's compositions.

Mrs. W. A. Maggart entertained the Bay View Reading circle yesterday afternoon at her home on North Main street.

Dr. and Mrs. N. J. Shook were at Fort Wayne shopping today.

Bernard Pullman was a business visitor at Avilla today.

Mrs. J. O. Wallace was shopping at Fort Wayne today.

GARRETT NEWS.

Garrett, Ind., Feb. 21.—Mrs. C. W. West, of Guilford street, is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. C. J. Hazeltine, of South Chicago.

C. E. Wright, of Fort Wayne, was a Garrett visitor today.

Mrs. Lena Benton visited Fort Wayne friends today.

J. Hospin, of Toledo, spent Thursday in this city with friends.

B. Klotz, of Swanton, Ohio, was the guest of friends here several days this week.

Mrs. R. Ruggles returned today from an extended visit with her son at Danville, Ill.

Bert Shapland, of Kendallville, was here on business today.

Miss Elsie Warner will return Sunday from a weeks' visit with her parents at Huntertown.

Mrs. D. L. Bechtol was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the Church of Christ this afternoon.

Mrs. John Cogley spent Thursday with friends at Fort Wayne.

Miss Rosena Stoeher has been very ill for several days with tonsilitis.

Miss Hattie Beckwith, of Butler, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Rafferty.

Mrs. John Weaver was called to Bairdstown, Ohio, today to see her mother, who is very critically ill.

Mrs. F. Bock left today for her home in Chicago Junction, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. J. Grimm.

Mrs. J. C. Smeed has returned from a ten days' visit in Toledo.

Mrs. Wolgamot visited her sister at Fort Wayne Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Miller have gone to Marion, Ind., for a ten days' visit with friends.

The benefit show given at Zeek's Pastime theater last evening was a great success financially, and was an excellent show. Besides showing an unusual number of pictures there were several special features among them being music by the high school quartet, solos by Little Elenora Beehler and readings by Helen McDonald. The crowd seemed greatly pleased with the program and each number was heartily applauded. The proceeds are for the benefit of Mrs. Billhoimer, of North Baltimore street, who was left a few weeks ago when her husband, a fireman on the B. & O. was killed while at work. The mother was left with five little children and in almost a destitute condition. The mother is afflicted with tuberculosis and the case was indeed a pitiful one. The firemen's wives canvassed the town a week ago and succeeded in getting a large donation of provisions and clothing and then arranged for this benefit show.

Miss Pauline Hollis, of Ege, is visiting relatives here for several weeks.

Miss Gladys Halter left today for Delaware, Ohio, to attend a sorority banquet.

Mrs. C. B. Jones' Sunday school class will meet with Mrs. R. N. Miller this afternoon and sew carpet rags.

Miss Cora McDanel has gone to Fayetteville, Ark., to spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Odd Clark.

Mrs. Louise Williams has returned to her home in Defiance after a visit among Garrett friends.

Mrs. W. H. Gillis has gone to St. Louis to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Thomas.

Mrs. J. N. Ritter left today for a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Trudo, at Toledo.

The Censorship on Prayer

Whatever justification he may fancy warranted him in his unheard-of procedure, the action of Lieutenant Governor O'Neill in summarily halting the Rev. Mr. Henry, of Indianapolis, in the midst of his invocation in the Indiana senate Thursday on the grounds that he was delivering a political speech and not a prayer, it must be admitted that the lieutenant governor's action was hasty, ill-advised and in extremely bad taste. The clergyman may have been indiscreet in his utterances to the Most High which he had been invited to deliver in behalf of the senatorial body, but even this can hardly be justly pleaded in extenuation of the presiding officer's amazing tactics. Mr. O'Neill says he regarded the language of the prayer as an insult to the senate. The preacher declares the lieutenant governor misinterpreted his prayer. It is inconceivable that any minister of the gospel would seek to insult any body of men for whom he had been invited to petition divine guidance, but in any event the lieutenant governor could have with infinitely better taste left for matter of passing judgment upon the petition to the Almighty to whom it was addressed, unless he was distrustful of a proper appreciation of the enormity of the offense at the Throne of Grace and felt that it was a situation with which only the lieutenant governor of Indiana could adequately deal. Plainly Mr. O'Neill's action was too hasty and too drastic. It served no good purpose whatever and its inevitable result will be to engender unnecessary bitterness. If the clergyman's choice of language or theme was impolitic or ill-advised, the incident might better have been allowed to pass unnoticed. In attempting to censor prayer the lieutenant governor is loading himself up with unnecessary burdens and official duties not imposed upon him by the constitution.

Fort Wayne is amply justified in pointing with pride to its record of public improvements for 1912 as set forth in the annual report of City Engineer Randall. More than $350,000 was expended for street and alley paving and sidewalk construction, and a total of more than seven miles of streets were paved during the year, bringing the total of paved streets in Fort Wayne up to slightly over sixty-one miles. Still better is the fact that improvements in contemplation for the present year will run up to a higher total than those of last year.

The country will hardly raise a united protest against the proposition to remove the last vestige of tariff from the cash register industry. It has been amply demonstrated that the cash register has been graduated from the infant industry class and that it is able to take care not only of itself but of such ambitious competitive concerns as impudently sought the right to breathe.

Ex-President Madero is not only out of a job, but is facing a probably amazing display of versatility upon the part of his loving countrymen down in Mexico in trumping up charges against him running the gamut from petit larceny to murder. But, then, Mr. Madero knew what sort of a chance he was taking when he assisted in banishing his distinguished predecessor in the position.

A GREAT FAMILY INDEED.

(Grand Rapids Press.)

Close students of Central American affairs did not take the present Mexican imbroglio very seriously for a patent reason. There was no Gomez in it. No revolution is to be seriously considered unless some member of that celebrated and numerous family arrives on the back of a mule at the head of a tattered army. Now Gen. Vasquez Gomez has entered the arena. It was bound to come sooner or later. Gomez, who has been confined in jail in the United States, gained his freedom and, blithely skipping across the border, picked up a handful of faithful followers and a revolver and proclaimed himself president of Mexico, disregarding the claims of Felix Diaz, Madero, Orozco and a score of other semi-presidents who are now presidenting in that unhappy country.

There is nothing small about any member of the Gomez family. For a Gomez to proclaim himself president of chili concarne republic anywhere in the banana zone is as natural as for a rooster to crow in the morning. The Gomez family to Central America is what the Smith, Jones and Johnson families are to the United States. It is impossible to shoot into a rebel army south of the Rio Grande without hitting three or four of the Gomez boys and a casualty list after a battle sounds like a reading of the Gomez family tree.

"What is war without a Gomez," has come to be a household motto from one end of the isthmus to the other. The Gomez family sprang into fame when old Maximo led the rebels of Cuba against Spain, and they have been Gomezing around ever since looking for trouble. It is believed if the Gomez family ever got together in one army it could clean up every republic from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn. It is the grand old family of the red pepper zone and the newspaper correspondents would be lonesome without it.

THE NEW SERVANT.

(Terre Haute Tribune.)

Not only has the parcel post saved the people of the United States, in the first fifteen days of its existence, more than a half-million dollars, according to Senator Bourne, author of the law, but it has not proved a hardship to the overworked letter carriers. The senator announced a few days ago that reports from forty-five leading cities of the country, which produce almost half of the postal revenues, showed that during the twelve working days between January 1 and 15, a total of 5,094,027 outgoing parcels were distributed at a cost of $395,286, or about 7.7 cents a parcel.

"Under the postal rates previously in force, 1 cent an ounce," said the senator, "the postage would have been an average of 18½ cents a parcel, or a total of $942,394.90, thus showing a saving to shippers of $547,608.12 on twelve days' business. It should also be remembered that the usual minimum charge of express companies is 25 cents a parcel, whereas the average charge on the parcel post packages was only 7.7 cents."

It is also worthy of note that although the business was large it was distributed through a large postal organization, so that no congestion has resulted.

PRESS COMMENT ON RAILROAD FIREMEN.

"Gravity of the Situation."

New York Post: "The railway firemen should have a realizing sense of the gravity of the situation."

"Might Not Wish."

New York Press: "The roads could be made to offer a wage they might not wish to offer, just as the roads might be compelled to offer a traffic rate they might not wish to offer."

"Confessedly Small."

Boston Herald: "The number of men qualified to serve as firemen, particularly in association with unionized engine drivers, who would be unsympathetic with their efforts, is confessedly small."

Erdman Act.

New York Tribune: "The Erdman act supplies the legal system for protecting the public from the consequences of such a dispute as the one which reached a critical point between the railroads and their firemen."

"As Can Be Afforded."

Providence Journal: "There is no disposition on the part of the companies to ignore fair demands; it is unequivocally stated that as large an advance in wages as can be afforded will be granted."

"Staggers the Imagination."

Philadelphia Inquirer: "A strike which must paralyze the transportation service of half the continent would be productive of such loss and suffering to millions of people as staggers the imagination to conceive."

"One Singular Phase."

Brooklyn Eagle: "One singular phase is the anomalous position of the so-called 'engineer firemen,' some ten thousand in number, who have voted as firemen on the strike proposition and are therefore bound by the result, and yet are also bound by the agreement of the locomotive engine drivers not to strike."

A TECHNICALITY THAT FAILED.

(Toledo Blade.)

The supreme court of the state of Florida is entitled to a tally mark.

A jury has found a man guilty of stealing "one female animal of the bovine species, nearly two years old, with a white body and red head, and without horns, marked swallow fork in one ear and underbit in the other." The attorney for the defendant took the case to the supreme court, alleging that there was no way of telling from the description of the "female animal" whether it was a cow, heifer, calf, steer or what." The supreme court thought it could tell and expressed satisfaction with the description and the verdict of the jury.

The technicality is losing its charm. We are getting on.

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

The research laboratory of The Swift Specific Co. has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may not be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

ENGINEER FILES REPORT OF WORK

Frank Randall Gives an Account of Public Improvements.

THE BOARD ROUTINE

At the meeting of the board of public works last night Engineer Frank Randall submitted his report of work done during last year and it shows that about seven miles of street paving was done in 1912.

Mr. Randall prepared plans for forty-two street paving contracts; six for alley paving; twenty-seven for cement sidewalks; thirteen for sewers, and thirty-three for street and alley openings and vacations—a total of 121.

Thirty-six street paving contracts were completed; six alley paving contracts, one street was graded, two alleys were graded, thirteen sewers were built and thirteen cement sidewalk contracts finished—a total of 71.

Contracts completed amounted to $301,634.27, and private contracts for street and alley paving and cement sidewalks represented an expense of $51,437.01, making a total of $353,071.28 for streets, alleys, cement sidewalks and sewers. Eight street paving, eleven cement sidewalk, one alley paving, ten sewers and three track elevation contracts were carried over. The estimated cost of these is $165,120.81.

Contractors put down 124,677 square yards of street pavement, or 7.15 miles at a cost of $292,343.06. Of this, 4.095 miles were asphalt, costing $164,369.93; 1.065 miles brick, costing $83,004.61; 1.391 miles asphaltic concrete, costing $43,180.12, and .088 of a mile tarvia, costing $1,828.40.

This brings the total of paved streets in Fort Wayne up to 61.253 miles, of which 37 miles are asphalt; 22.66 miles brick, and 1.66 miles tarvia.

Six alleys were paved at a cost of $5,329.01, making 4.33 miles of paved alleys in the city.

More than 6.114 miles of cement sidewalks, varying in width from five to seven feet, and costing $22,990.47 were put down. Six miles of cement walks were put down under private contract at a cost of $20,609.16. The board of works issued 113 permits for the private work. The cost for the twelve miles of walks was $43,599.63.

Fort Wayne now has 59 miles of cement sidewalks.

The cost of the 4.84 miles of sewers constructed in 1912 was $30,807.91. The entire length of the city's sewer system is 99.50 miles, varying in diameter from 10 to 72 inches.

Board of Works Routine.

At its meeting last night the board of public works refused to rescind action on the opening of Cass street and confirmed the assessment roll. A delegation asked that this be done but the board members declined and also confirmed the assessment roll for opening Sixth street.

The confirmation of the assessment roll for opening Howell street from Rockhill's addition to Custer avenue, was postponed a week.

Following a hearing on the proposed opening of Wienke street from Warsaw to Hanna, the board decided to postpone action until Thursday, March 27. A resolution for a sewer in Warsaw street was confirmed.

Property owners from Dayton avenue asked for paving from Broadway to Beaver avenue, sidewalks on the north side and ornamental lamp posts on both sides. Plans were ordered for the paving and construction of sidewalks, while the petition for ornamental posts was taken under advisement.

A petition for grading Polk street and relocation of sidewalks was referred to the city engineer with instructions to prepare the necessary plans. Plans were also ordered for the construction of cement sidewalks on the north side of Spring street from the alley east of Barthold to the alley west of Sherman street.

Legislators Fight Shy of Public Hearing on the Weidler Bill.

CONVENTION IS URGED

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—That popular unrest over social and political problems in Indiana can be solved only by a constitutional convention to change the basic law of the state was the opinion expressed last night at a public hearing in the house chamber on the Weidler bill, which calls for a convention in September to effect this purpose.

Only three representatives, John R. Jones, of Marshall county; Crawford, of Wayne county, and Weidler, of South Bend, and one senator, Hibberd, of South Bend, were present at the meeting. A small number of citizens, including representatives of the Woman's Franchise League, W. C. T. U. and the Terre Haute Woman's club were in attendance.

In explaining his bill Representative Weidler asserted three-fourths of the people in Indiana wanted a constitutional convention and if this legislature did not grant the demand a new legislature two years hence would.

William A. Pickens, an attorney of Indianapolis, said he believed the legislature should not act hastily in calling a convention, but should draft amendments to the present constitution and submit them to the people. He asserted the people generally took little interest in questions of state, which provoked Representative Weidler to say: "I would trust 100 persons coming out of a shop in Indianapolis as easily as 100 in any legislature."

Women Are Heard.

"The Marshall constitution made too few changes, and we have outgrown the present basic law," said Mrs. J. J. Schlicher, representing the Woman's club of Terre Haute. Mrs. E. L. Foor, of Terre Haute, said she had received letters asking her to vote for certain bills pending in the house. "If we have a constitutional convention," she said, "perhaps these people will learn that I am not a member of the legislature."

Representative Crawford, who acted as chairman of the meeting, said: "All that is necessary is a legalizing act to establish a one-man rule, and we can abolish whatever constitution we have. If two-thirds of the people of Indiana sat in the legislature thirty days, there would be a revolution of the people in favor of a new constitution."

Senator Hibbend, the progressive member from South Bend, explained why he had espoused progressive ideas of legislation. He said if the people of South Bend would have had control, the street car company of that city would not enjoy a perpetual franchise. Reverting to the public service commission bill pending in the senate he remarked: "You need not be surprised to read some day that quite a number of democrats asked republicans to join them in defeating the bill unless the democratic majority unites soon."

Among others who spoke were Mrs. Culla Vayhinger, of Upland, president of the State W. C. T. U.; Dr. Amelia Keller, of Indianapolis, president of the Woman's Franchise League; W. K. Stewart, a merchant of Indianapolis; Mrs. Grace J. Clark, of Indianapolis; Mrs. W. E. Miller, of South Bend; Miss Harriet Noble, of Indianapolis, treasurer of the Woman's Franchise League; Conrad Rust and John L. Geckler, of Indianapolis.

Shot-Firing Bill Passes.

The Weisman bill making it obligatory on coal operators to engage and pay competent shot firers passed the house, 82 to 4. Representative Leyendecker, of Indianapolis, attacked the bill, asserting its purpose was to increase the salary of miners, who now pay the wages of the shot firers.

Representative Van Horne, of Indiana Harbor, interrupted the speaker with the remark, "you do not object to raising the salaries of Indianapolis officials." Representative Leyendecker continued his argument by pointing out that he had heard an argument in a senate committee on a similar bill, in which both miners and operators had agreed the measure increased wages of the miners.

Representative Bedwell, of Sullivan, spoke in behalf of the bill on the grounds that it conserved the lives of the miners and had proved satisfactory in Illinois, where it was adopted after mine accidents had snuffed out the lives of hundreds of miners.

The shot firer bill is one of the measures in which organized labor is interested and which figured in the conference which labor leaders had with Gov. Ralston regarding pending legislation.

Fleming Bill Passes.

The Fleming bill permitting the county commissioners of five counties to add an increase of salary as high as $1,000 to the annual salaries of the county superintendents, passed 71 to 20. The counties affected are Allen, Marion, St. Joseph, Lake and Vigo.

"A few days ago you passed a bill extending the tenure of office of county superintendents two years," said Representative Crawford, of Wayne county, "and now you come before us with the plea to increase salaries, saying in defense that it is optional with the county commissioners to grant it." Representatives Smith, of Anderson, and Combs, of Clinton county, fought the measure, the latter saying "we have grown hoarse fighting salary increases; we ought to defeat the measure."

The Riley bill permitting persons who have been engaged ten years continually in a drug store where physicians' prescriptions have been compounded, shall be entitled to a license and registration without examination, passed 52 to 31. Representatives Mitchell and Genoline fought the measure, arguing that it opened the way for incompetent druggists. They held it was lowering the standard of efficiency in this profession.

Representative Fleming, of Jay county, asserted the bill would affect only seventy men in the state. He said there were many men of wide experience in drugs who were unable to work in Indiana because they were unable to answer the technical questions the state board of pharmacy asked in examination.

Prefers An Old Man.

The author of the bill said he preferred to have an old man trained in the business to compound his medicine rather than a young graduate just out of college.

The Ensle bill increasing the salary of the Vanderburgh county auditor from $6,600 to $9,300 was passed. The author of the measure read letters from Albert J. Veneman, of Evansville, former speaker of the house, and from members of the Vanderburgh county council, supporting the increase.

There was no opposition to the passage of the Franklin bill providing for elevator inspection and prescribing qualifications of personus operating elevators.

The following bills by Senator Van Auken passed the house: "Providing that the township assessor, when making assessments, enroll the names of the Mexican, civil and Spanish-American war veterans; increasing the salary of jurors from $2 to $2.50 a day; no divorce to be granted until sixty days after the complaint has been filed.

House bills that passed follow:

House Bills Pass.

Stahl, arranging terms of court in Fountain county; Deck, prohibiting the locating of livery stables or noisy establishments within five hundred feet of a schoolhouse.

Speaker Cook named Representatives Cravens and Bedwell members of the committee to confer with senate members regarding the regular appropriation bill which came back to the house with amendments yesterday.

The Dickinson bill, establishing a minimum work day for women was made a special order for this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Carter bill, removing the maximum salary limit for patrolmen in cities having the metropolitan police system, which passed both houses and was withdrawn from the governor because of errors, was rectified in the house and then sent the measure back to the upper house.

The committee on medicine and health will report for passage the White senate bill prohibiting public drinking cups. The committee on banks decided to recommend indefinite postponement on the Tingle bill authorizing trust companies to create and maintain a mortgage and loan department. It will report favorably the Myers bill permitting trust companies to be guardians of wards living outside the county in which the company is located.

The committee on natural resources will report favorably the Lyday bill appropriating $500 to secure photographs and publish views of scenic spots in Indiana. It decided indefinite postponement on the W. M. Jones bill prescribing a fine of $1,000 to $10,000 on companies pumping natural gas from wells.

Members of the house were guests of Speaker Cook at a theater party last night.

Little Business in Senate.

Little business was transacted in the senate yesterday afternoon on account of the caucus of the democratic senators.

As had been agreed upon in the caucus, the joint resolutions of Senator Stotzenburg, one withdrawing the "lawyers' amendment" from consideration by the people, the other to put the question of a constitutional convention to direct vote of the people, and the proposed amendment to the present constitution proposed by the same senator, were made a special order of business for this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Zearing Sunday theater bill, which had been posted for special order, was continued until today.

Three bills were passed. One was the Stotzenburg bill, requiring interurban companies to have a partition between the motorman of any interurban car and the baggage. The bill of Senator Hibberd, of South Bend, to clear up the title of a cemetery at Mishawaka, was passed. The third was the bill by Senator W. R. Wood permitting the treasurers of benevolent institutions to pay their bond from the maintenance fund.

Judiciary A committee reported favorably upon the Tingle bill, regulating fraternal insurance companies, which passed the house after bitter opposition before committees.

Nine new measures were offered. One by Senator Van Nuys would require that municipally owned utility plants must advertise for bids when contracts for more than $600 are to be let. Senator Strange, of Marion, introduced a bill for the governor to appoint surveyors to set up monuments on the boundary lines of school lands.

MOUSE DEER.

That's the answer to the Sentinel's animal puzzle printed yesterday.

Scientists and bookish persons call it a "chevrotain." But IT is a mouse deer, and is traceable to the same ancestry as the ordinary deer. It is the smallest deer in the world. It is 8 3-4 inches high, and weighs 60 ounces.

Some thousands of years, or during the middle Tertiary time, this mouse deer's ancestors roamed over North America, but years and years ago it took a dislike to our climate and moved to warmer climes.

This one was found in India and was sold to Taylor Pyne, who brought it to America and gave it to the New York zoo.

When the mouse deer lives at home, it is the most timid of animals, hiding in dense jungles, and is rarely seen, so shy is it.

It walks with a queer, stiff-leged, tiptoeing gait. Its head resembles that of a mouse, except for the tusks. It has the legs and hoofs of the deer family, while its body looks much like that of an American rabbit when hunched up. Its fluffy fur is snow white, except for a reddish tinge along the spine.

Ambition Pills

For Nervous People

At last they're here and here to stay. The first time ever offered to the people of Fort Wayne, the famous Wendell's Ambition Pills—the great nerve tonic that will put vigor, vim and vitality into nervous, tired out, all in, despondent people in a few days.

Anyone can buy a box for only 50 cents and Meyer Bros. Co. are authorized by the maker to refund the purchase price if anyone is dissatisfied.

Thousands praise them for general debility, nervous prostration, mental depression and unstrung nerves caused by over indulgence in alcohol, tobacco or excesses of any kind.

As a brain food or any affliction of the nervous system Wendell's Ambition Pills are unsurpassed, while for hysteria, trembling and neuralgia they are simply splendid. Fifty cents at Meyer Bros. Co. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid by Wendell Pharmacal Co., Syracuse, N. Y.—Meyer Bros. Co.—Adv.

For the Thin and Blood less!

The thin and bloodless, with pale cheeks, white lips and frail angular physique, of this community have been much interested in the reports of physicians and others concerning the effectiveness of the treatment for increasing the red and white corpuscles of the blood, thus adding color and weight with its accompanying vigor to the depleted system. A gain of from ten to thirty pounds is not at all unusual where the treatment is regularly used for several months, while the color improves almost from the beginning. Most good apothecaries supply it in the form of three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets put up in sealed packets, with directions for home use. Its action aids assimilation and absorption of the food eaten very promptly.

Society

A large company of men and women spent last evening as guests of the Misses Swinney and again enjoyed the cordial welcome which these hostesses ever extend in in their hospitable home. The house was fragrant with blossoms of many flowers and in the dining room, where a number of intimate family friends were seated at one table, the decorations were a low plaque of jonquils, frezias and pansies mingled with mignonette. The fragrance of the flowers, as well as their beauty, lent a charm to the entire scene. The small tables at which the other guests were seated needed no further beauty than that furnished by the elegance of appointment, including lovely china. The supper, served by Mrs. Schumaker, was elaborate and delicious. The company remained until a late hour and enjoyed a visit with their hosts as well as with each other. The invitations included Messrs. and Mesdames C. E. Bond, G. W. Beers, Dr. A. E. Bulson, G. D. Crane, C. E. Crall, A. J. Detzer, George Evans, S. S. Fisher, B. J. Griswold, Emil Keller, H. G. Keegan, Dr. D. W. Moffat, Dr. G. W. McCaskey, S. L. Morris, Stephen Morris, Rev. H. B. Master, S. E. Mulholland, W. A. Nichols, Judge Walter Olds, Judge Edward O'Rourke, Dr. M. F. Porter, A. H. Perfect, C. E. Potter, F. C. Peters, P. A. Randall, James Rogers, F. E. Stouder, John A. Shoaff, Rev. C. C. Travis, C. H. Worden, J. W. White, W. M. Wardrop, Edward White, E. F. Yarnelle, Mrs. E. A. Donnen, Mrs. Susan Hoffman, Miss Helen Brenton, Mrs. Anna McCracken, Miss Spencer, Miss Jenkinson, Miss Katherine Hamilton, Miss Sibray, Miss Smith, Miss Helen O'Rourke, Mrs. Murdock and Mrs. May Patterson, of Logansport.

Miss Hulda Larimore, who is to be a bride of April, was the honored guest at a beautiful afternoon party given today by Miss Aline Vail at her home in South Webster street. During the afternoon the twenty guests showered Miss Larimore with gifts which they placed on a table trimmed in blue and white, the colors of the entire arrangements which Miss Vail made. The gifts were miscellaneous in character and dainty and appropriate. The supper table was arranged with blue and white Japanese paper covers with napkins to match. In the center a bowl of bride roses suggested the pre-nuptial gathering and a bouquet of roses tied with blue tulle lay at Miss Larimore's place, white baskets tied with perky tulle bows of blue made pretty favors to hold nuts and festoons of white cupids in the living and diningrooms were another feature of the attractive arrangements the hostess made. Miss Murial Larimore and Miss Martha Vail assisted in serving the luncheon. During the afternoon there was a guessing contest and music by a victrola to add to the guests' pleasure. Mrs. Claude Meehan has issued invitations to a party she will give in Miss Larimore's honor on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Walter Mellick has returned from Maplewood, N. J., and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hoffman.

Mrs. Meyer Lovitch has arrived from Cincinnati to join her husband, Rabbi Meyer Lovitch, who is located here.

Mrs. W. B. Merrill and son, Billy, of Washington boulevard west, have gone to Pittsburg and will visit in Washington and Baltimore before they return.

Miss Anna Bubb and Miss Rose Gibson are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gibson, of Poe. A number of parties have been given in honor of the visitors.

Misses Julia Kelsey, Nellie Wilt and Virginia Olds have gone to Lafayette to attend a house party of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

The Pythian Sisters will give a card party and dance tomorrow evening to which all Knights of Pythias and their families are invited.

Harold Wood, of Louisville, Ky., arrives in the city today to spend the week-end with Judge and Mrs. S. A. Wood.

Mrs. Fred E. Hoffman is at Mt. Clemens, Mich., spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. C. S. Knight, who is at the resort for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Ada Marks, of Brackenridge street, entertained a dozen young women last evening at cards. A fine supper was served after the game and all enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. George Sunderland, of Chicago, met a few intimate friends this afternoon at a game of bridge which Mrs. J. B. Reuss gave. There were players for two tables only.

Mrs. Fern Bonter, of Kinnaird avenue, entertained a few young people on Wednesday evening who called in celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Bonter moving into their new home.

Mrs. Arnold Curdes and Miss Emma Alringer gave a vaudeville party at the Temple theater this afternoon as a compliment to Mrs. Howard David and Mrs. Herbert Coverdale. The guests were intimate friends of Mrs. David, who is here on her way to her new home in Washington, and Mrs. Coverdale, who is moving from Chicago to Indianapolis. Both honor guests were Fort Wayne brides within a year.

There were covers for twenty-five at the luncheon given at the Anthony hotel at 1 o'clock today in honor of Mrs. Hoke, of Indianapolis, who addressed a meeting of the Mothers club and members of the Parent-Teacher clubs at the public library this afternoon. The table was decorated with jonquils in a blue bowl to correspond with the colors of the National Society of Mothers Clubs. The officers of the local clubs and presidents of parent-teacher clubs were guests at the luncheon.

One of the prettiest of pre-nuptial parties was given by Mrs. I. Weil last evening in honor of Miss Lehman and Mr. Pollak, whose nuptials are to take place soon. The decorations were bouquets of sweetpeas and pink and white rosebuds mingled with ferns and pink-hooded candles on the table in the dining room where elegant refreshments were served. There were many flowers used in all the rooms and the guests who enjoyed a game of bridge did so in the midst of extremely pretty surroundings. The out of town guests were Mrs. M. Mannberger, of Terre Haute; Mrs. Elmer Rauh, of Dayton, O., and Miss Cecelia Gardner, of Chicago.

Many guests spent a happy time yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Ford, of West Jefferson street, when she and Mrs. G. J. Tuckey, Mrs. M. T. Tracy and Mrs. Ed Gillette entertained at a valentine bridge party. Vases of red and white roses and carnations decorated one of the rooms and a variety of spring blossoms with palms and ferns and blooming plants contributed to making the house exceedingly attractive. A delicious supper was served and in keeping tallies on the game and in serving the supper the hostesses were assisted by Miss Myrtle Carter, Miss Marguerite Wing, Miss Ethel Ford and Miss Claudine Meisner. The tally cards were embossed in gold with a monogram of surname initials of the hostesses. The favors were red and white rose cups filled with salted nuts. Every appointment was lovely and a delicious supper was served after the card playing. There were players for seventeen tables. Mrs. Charles Porter, of Napoleon, O., was an out of town guest.

English—Tower.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Tower, of 2535 South Webster street, have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Williams Tower, to Dr. Calvin H. English, which took place on Thursday evening at half past 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Folsom, of Plymouth church, in the presence of family relatives and a very few close friends. Miss Vesta Thompson played the wedding music and a delicious supper was served. The bride and groom left at midnight for a southern trip and will visit points in Florida during their fortnight's absence. On their return home Dr. and Mrs. English will be at home for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Tower.

Woman's League Meeting.

A meeting of the Woman's League, with the educational department in charge of the program, will be held in the public library tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At this meeting Mrs. Orville Bright, of Chicago, will talk of the aims and purposes of parent-teacher clubs. As Mrs. Bright is vice-president of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Clubs she is well qualified to speak with authority on this subject which is arousing so much interest in educational circles and among parents of this city. A class from the Bloomingdale school will give a flag drill as a feature of entertainment.

DAILY HEALTHOGRAM.

Clothes worn next to the skin should be changed at least twice a week during the winter and every other day during the summer. Underwear worn during the day should not be worn while sleeping. It binds the body and prevents perfect rest and relaxation.

THE MONOCLE GIRL HAS ARRIVED.

Smart women are wearing monocles now in New York, don't you know. Miss Annie Tinker, a noted horsewoman, started it a year ago at the horse show. Now there's a big demaand for 'em at the swell jewelry shops, and they're worn much at society affairs.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"Little Boy Blue," Big Musical Show, Tomorrow.

Truly one of the most pretentious offerings of the present theatrical season is the Henry W. Savage production of the joyous operetta, "Little Boy Blue," which is the attraction announced for tomorrow, Washington's birthday, matinee and night, at the Majestic.

Mr. Savage acquired "Little Boy Blue" during one of his trips abroad, after viewing it in Vienna, where it was first produced, to be quickly followed by presentations in Paris and Berlin. It scored a pronounced success in all three of the cities named.

Deeming it a worthy successor to his "Merry Widow," he secured the rights for this country and after having it properly Americanized he offered it in New York at the Lyric theater, on 42nd street, where it scored heavily, making a record run of six months. The New York critics declared it to be one of the daintiest and most pleasing entertainments of last season, and especially praised the music for its quality and novelty.

Rainey's African Hunt Pictures All Next Week.

When the Paul J. Rainey African hunt was announced for appearance in Nashville, Tenn., about a month ago, Professor J. J. Keyes, superintendent of public schools of that city, immediately telephoned to the Vendome theater asking to see a representative of the company. The business manager, who travels a week in advance of the organization to arrange for the advertising of his attraction, called at once upon the educator.

Professor Keyes said: "I saw the Rainey African hunt motion pictures in Chicago last summer and I think they are wonderfully interesting and instructive; now I have twelve thousand school children and teachers here in Nashville, what arrangement can we make for their attendance, for I want every one of them to see the exhibition?"

Needless to say, daily matinees were immediately inaugurated and the engagement in Nashville was a huge success

AT THE JEFFERSON

The Jefferson is offering two good pictures today and tonight. In "The Appeal" you have the acme of perfection. The theme is sublime, filled with dramatic situations, a very superior cast and photography par excellence. In "Two Sides of a Story" jealousy had prompted a husband deserting his wife. Years later he met the man he had suspected it was her brother. The reunion is highly emotional. Saturday a big two reel Milano feature, "For the Honor of the Family."

WALES HAS MOVING FOREST.

Slipping of Soil Causes Wood to Make Steady Progress.

London, Feb. 21.—South Wales has a real moving wood whose movement is due to the physical forces of nature and not to human energy. The wood stands in the Vale of Glamorgan, nine miles from Cardiff, and it seems to be gradually nearing the final stage of its progress. It is now perched on a hill which rises from the roadside at gentle declivity.

The movement, which is due to the loosening of the root soil from the bed of rock, commenced two months ago and the wood now blocks the road.

KILLED BY FALLING TREE.

Young Man Meets Death; Grandfather Escapes.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 21.—Ernest Shoemaker, 24 years old, was killed near here yesterday when a large tree which he was chopping fell on him. The young man was working with his grandfather, Louis Hale, who was not hurt.

"The Happy Gleaners" of Queen Esther Circle in Tableaux at First M. E. Entertainment

"The Happy Gleaners" of the Queen Esther circle of the First M. E. Sunday school gave an entertainment in the auditorium of the church Thursday evening, which was largely attended. A splendid program was given and the young ladies participating were congratulated on its merit and the manner of its presentation.

Two tableaux of interest were presented. One was "America's Reception to the Different Nations Under the Flag," and the other a tableau of the Queen Esther girls representing America. Both were beautiful. In the first named tableau twelve nations were represented. They were a most interesting part of the program.

In other respects the program was enjoyable. Intemperance and the white slave traffic were shown in tableaux. There was music, vocal and instrumental, given by the male and mixed quartets and the Schlatter orchestra. The proceeds were to furnish a scholarship for the Home Missionary society.

"The Happy Gleaners'" class is composed of thirty-three young ladies. The teacher is Mrs. Charles P. Easley, who is assisted by Miss Fern Waters. As a social organization the class holds many pleasant gatherings and is doing a great work for the church.

WILL GIVE SMALL FARMER A CHANCE

State of Washington is Much Excited Over Its Big Idea.

AFTER THE LAND HOG

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 21.—Washington state is all smoked up over an idea. It's a mighty big idea, too; one that should be of interest to every citizen in every state. It is a plan to give the plain, everyday citizen, the man of brawn and brains, but little cash, a chance to get a start at farming. Washington, and for that matter every state in the nation, feels the need of small farm owners.

FREDERICK BAUSMAN.

Frederick Bausman, an attorney of this city, is the father of the idea. It is proposed to get a bill through the legislature authorizing a bond issue of $20,000,000 which would have to be approved by the people at the next general election. Here is Bausman's plan which is now being agitated by newspapers and citizens:

The Idea.

Subject to taxation in this state is property assessed at one thousand millions of dollars. The state owes nothing. What would a wise man do if he had a vast estate unincumbered, and yet was desperate for improvements? Would he not borrow? This state should borrow at once $20,000,000, only 1-15 of its appraised wealth? It should be distributed over eastern and western Washington in the development of lands for colonization.

The state can borrow, on 20-year bonds, at not above 4 per cent. It should then first begin the clearing and sale of its public lands; and second (because its public lands are not always in locality, area or soil the best for agriculture or economical clearing), it should purchase logged-off lands from private owners, when advantageously situated, clear them and sell to settlers on 20 payments, at a small advance—say 5 per cent on the cost—with interest at about one-half of 1 per cent above the rate on its bonds.

Aside from the prosperity which would follow the use of this money now, the state would never lose a dollar. This is a bond issue that would create values. We would be enriched by thousands of farmers and by an enormous increase in improved values. The state can clear these lands at vastly less cost than private companies. It can give periods of payment far more extended, nor will it be forced to make a profit.

Speaking generally, after providing for the clearing and sale of state lands, the measure, which the present legislature sould pass, will provide for the purchase of private lands after written reports showing the analysis of the soil and the estimated cost of clearing. The governor of the state should be the official head of the work, and in his own handwriting approve every purchase.

The purchased lands should be divided into tracts of 20 or 40 acres, in each of which the state should clear all or such portion as may be wise, leaving the rest in instances to be cleared by the settler, who begins with at least enough cleared by the state to support him. The settler would purchase upon conditions of reasonable residence upon the soil and of forfeiture if he abandons before certain payments have been made (this to prevent speculators), and no assignment will be permitted without the consent of the state, or title be given until the settler, if a foreigner, has declared his intention to become a citizen.

Provisions will be inserted by which existing struggling settlers may also avail themselves of this legislation.

But will speculators sell their logged-off lands? Will logged-off lands go up in value and defeat this reasonable scheme? If they do they will be met by a provision of this law that the amount tendered by the state in cash to the owner of any such lands, long unimproved, shall be certified to the assessors of taxes for their action in the next appraisement.

EARTH AND ROCK IN MOTION.

Slides Along Panama Canal Show Unusual Activity.

Washington, Feb. 21.—More than 2,000,000 cubic yards of earth and rock are in motion along the Panama canal and the slides are showing more than unusual activity. This was the information received from the canal zone today. In addition to the slides which will involve additional work before the water is turned into the canal, there still remains about 4,000,000 yards of excavation before the work is completed.

On or about October 1, the water will be turned into the canal bed, for by that time it will have risen behind the great dam at Gamboa to a height of 74 feet above sea level. The army engineers are looking forward to the opening of the sluice gates for it will give them opportunity to test the proof of their assertion that the slides of earth and rock in the Culebra cut can be removed cheaply and with little trouble by means of dredges and that the slides will present little engineering difficulties.

NO "RED BLOOD" IN IT NOW.

Yale Students Abandon Washington's Birthday "Rush."

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 21.—After six weeks agitation over details for the annual Washington's birthday "rush" between the Yale freshmen and sophomores the two classes have decided to abandon it this year. The "rush" has been a regular feature of Yale life and its omission this season will be the first time in many decades. For several years the faculty has been making more and more rigorous rules regarding the struggle with the result that the students declared there was no longer any "red blood" in it.

Fort Wayne council, No. 1427, Knights and Ladies of Security, will give a dance this evening in the hall above the Star theater.

START ON PLANS FOR BIG SERIES

Managers Will Meet in a Short Time to Make Arrangements.

FRIARS WIN SECOND

Arrangements for the series of games between the Friar and Concordia basket ball teams will be made just as soon as Managers Otto W. Pohlmeyer and Claus can get together as the students usually close their season Easter, which will be here much earlier this year than it has for a century.

A victory for the Friars last night by a score of 23 to 17 eliminated St. Mary's Athletic club from participation this season in the closing event of the great winter sport and the fact is directly due to the absence of the one great element the victors had most to fear when they started the play.

Prof. Louis Pell has been all season a dead shot on free throws, and although he had a dozen chances last night he landed only three, and lost the game by not being up to his usual form. His average is generally as good as .667 and if he had struck his gait last night he could easily have at least drawn a tie and an overtime chance to win out.

On the other hand Dietrich, whose shooting at Library hall a week ago was way off color, shot seven baskets out of nine chances on free throws. Feeling was intense all during the game and before and after and the rumpus started early when it was found the Friar supporters had brought rosin into the hall to use on the floor.

St. Mary's players did not object strenuously to this but their friends called the turn on the trick but not until after the Friars had derived a little benefit from the scheme. The greatest objection made is by the lessees of the hall, who say the rosin injures the floor for dancing.

Weight counted in the games. There was very little difference in the scores and last night the Saints demonstrated their gameness by going into the second period with the score 14 to 1 against them and battling so hard right down to the last whistle that they came near upsetting the Friar defense.

Taken as a whole the series was satisfactory although play in both was rougher and there were more fouls called than is consistent with clean basket ball. This is the second defeat for the Saints in a city series and the Friars deserve credit for their victory because it is their first season and they went against a club that had been before the public much longer. The hall was packed and there was a brand of rooting staged that indicated very clearly the interest taken in the outcome.

Barnhart's work as referee was highly satisfactory as he watched play closely and penalized violations of the rules without fear or favor. The line-up and score:

MURPHY EXPECTS TO TAKE BATTLE

Ad Wolgast Will Meet One of the Toughest Boys in the Game.

MUCH IS AT STAKE

FACTS ABOUT THE FIGHT.

- Wolgast's "salary"—$9,000, with privilege of 50 per cent. of the receipts.
- Murphy's end—A secret agreement with Promoter Coffroth.
- Scheduled distance—20 rounds.
- Takes place on third anniversary of Wolgast's victory over Battling Nelson.
- Estimated receipts—$18,000.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Tomorrow afternoon at Daly City, where Promoter Jim Coffroth's open air arena is located, in which Ketchel and Thomas, Attell and Moran, Attell and Murphy, Burns and Squires, Johnson and Ketchel, Johnson and Kaufman, Nelson and Hyland, Nelson and Gans and other memorable battles have been fought, Ad Wolgast and Harlem Tommy Murphy will meet in a scheduled twenty-round battle which is expected to reveal to a certainty whether Wolgast is still a championship contender or whether he has gone as far as nature would permit him to go in his contest on last Thanksgiving afternoon with Willie Ritchie, to whom he lost the title on a foul.

In Mrphy the ex-champion is meeting one of the very toughest boys in his division a boy who fights marvelously well in California, and who has shown better form every time out since his initial battle in the state.

When Wolgast agreed to meet Murphy he at once went into light training in Portland, Ore., and after a few days' work announced that he never felt better and that when he stepped into the ring he would be so good that Murphy would be lucky to last fifteen rounds. In direct contradiction, Tom Jones, shortly before he and Wolgast came to the parting of the ways, declared that it would be physical suicide for Wolgast to fight on Feb. 22 and that it would be impossible for him to get into shape. Jones has been with Wolgast for over four years, and probably knows more about the Cadillac boy's condition than any other man in the world, therefore what he says carries weight.

In physical mold the boys do not vary much. Murphy has an advantage of one inch in height and two in reach, but otherwise the boys are fairly evenly matched in physique, save that Wolgast's arms are huge as compared with those of Murphy. Wolgast has the arms of a welterweight, while Murphy has the lithe, smoothly muscled arms that go with the properly molded lightweight.

Murphy is one of the most conscientious trainers in the business and never enters the ring except in the best of condition. On the other hand Wolgast is an extremely slovenly trainer. When he goes out on the road he sports away from training quarters, but as soon as he gets out of sight he finds a hiding place and rests until it is time for him to return. So it is with his gym work and boxing. In the morning he announces a full program, but when the afternoon comes he cuts it down to the minimum, the most work he gets being on the rubbing board. It is this habit, along with Murphy's consistent work in the ring and conscientious training, that has made many fans string a bet on Murphy even some of the best experts and it would not be a surprise if Murphy were to take Wolgast's measure.

Murphy, because of his fine habits, has made friends wherever he has gone. He and tobacco and liquor are total strangers and when not on the road or in the gym he is with his wife and little girl, his devotion to them being of the extreme type. He is a steady churchgoer, gives liberally to charity and is putting away his earnings that his family will be well provided for when he puts aside the gloves.

SPENCERVILLE TAKES A GAME.

Beat the Concord Township Players by a Score of 46 to 9.

St. Joe, Ind., Feb. 21.—The Concord township teachers, who have a good record and are rated as St. Joe's best basket ball team, were snowed under in the contest with the Spencerville high school team by a score of 46 to 9. Every man on the visiting team did good passing, excellent shooting and fine all around team work. The teachers were deprived of the services of Thatcher, their forward. However, Shuff filled his place creditably. Referee Shook and Umpire Curie are to be complimented for the fairness of their decisions and the excellent manner in which they handled the game.

READY FOR THE OPENING.

Toledo, O., Feb. 21.—Final arrangements for the opening of the thirteenth annual tournament of the American Bowling congress, which will take place tomorrow night, were completed today. By tomorrow the alleys and tournament stands will be ready to be turned over to the A. B. C. officials. Judge Howard, of Chicago, president of the organization, is expected to arrive tomorrow morning. He will remain here until after the executive and the directors' meetings next week.

Secretary Langley says the official list of prizes will be made up next week after the meeting of the executive committee.

COACHING COMES PRETTY HIGH.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 21.—A striking comparison is being given publicity here with the announcement that when President Taft retires next month and accepts a chair as professor of law at Yale he will receive only $1,000 a year more than Howard Jones will as football coach. The salaries are $5,000 and $4,000 respectively. Coach Jones was for four years a gridiron hero and is only five years out of college, while Prof. Taft has a thirty-six year record as a distinguished alumnus and master of law.

Lima White Stars Here for a Game Against St. Mary's Club.

If arrangements are completed during the day the Lima White Stars will play St. Mary's Athletic basket ball team at Odeon hall tomorrow night. This club is popular here and has a record of one victory and one defeat in Fort Wayne.

BOTH BOXERS WILL ENTER THE RING FULL OF CONFIDENCE AND GOOD BOUT IS EXPECTED.

(By Ad Wolgast.)

I'll whip Murphy inside of 15 rounds. I felt soon after I started work for this bount that I would be in fine shape and that, while Murphy is a tough boy and would be hard to wear down, he eventually would be forced to succumb. Beating Murphy will be one way of celebrating the third anniversary of my winning of the lightweight championship from Battling Nelson. After Murphy, Richie. He will be given no rest until he consents to meet me in a return match. After Ritchie, Ad Wolgast once more will be the undisputed lightweight champion of the world.

(By Tommy Murphy.)

A little more than three years ago I met Ad Wolgast in a six-round bout in Pittsburg. He was at his best then, but I beat him, and I know I can repeat, especially over the long distance. Wolgast has gone back, while I, respite my long career in the ring, have improved in every fight that I have made in California. It may seem strange, but in all my starts out here I have even surprised myself. This time I am going to surprise Wolgast. I know what I can do in a 20-round go and in this fight it will be my effort to go faster and harder than ever.

THINKS NAME IS PITCHER MANUSH

Claude Varnell Has Recruit and Says He is Not Certain of Name.

OWNER IN THE CITY

Along with a new suit of clothes and an overcoat that has been out of service four days on account of the warm weather at Wheeling, Owner Claude H. Varnell blew into our enterprising city this morning with the announcement that he had signed a new pitcher.

He thinks the name is Manush, and knows its something like that but he is not just sure about it. However, a new Manush has broken into the game as a pitcher and this bars any probability of its being the old player of the same name because he is an infielder.

Anyhow, he will try out here in the spring, and he is backed by 6 feet 2 of hight with proportionate weight, and like all the phenoms he has "wonderful speed and a nice assortment of curves."

Mr. Varnell is on his way to Indianapolis to attend the meeting there on Sunday of the Central league magnates who will adopt a schedule and close up the odds and ends of business that need closing up.

* * *

Will Inks, formerly with the Fort Wayne team in the Northwestern league, called on President Louis Heilbronner today in the interests of Player Sack, signed with South Bend. Inks is out of baseball and is in business at Ligonier.

Sack's family is opposed to professional ball for him as he is a musician of some promise, but last season he obtained permission to try if he would go to South Bend. He went and he liked the game.

A few days ago President Heilbroner got a letter from him asking that South Bend be kept in the Central because if it is not he cannot play ball.

* * *

The object of Mr. Varnell's visit is to arrange for some improvements at the ball park. He will have the stands inspected to see that they are safe, and will do the repair work that has to be done from year to year.

He says that no deal has been completed for the transfer of Frank Shaughnessy to the Ottawa club and that he has heard nothing in the matter for the last two weeks.

ALBION TO PLAY TONIGHT.

High School Will Put on Basket Ball Game at Smart School Gym.

Albion high school will play basket ball at the James H. Smart school gym tonight against the Fort Wayne high school. The game with Churubusco was cancelled and the forfeit of $10 provided by association rules may be claimed by the team here.

WILL NOT SIGN CONTRACT.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 21.—Orville Overall will not sign the contract sent him by Manager Evers, of the Chicago Nationals, and if required to rejoin Chicago, he will remain out of baseball, according to a statement he made last night.

Oversall said he would play during the coming season if Evers would trade him to some other team. Otherwise he would remain in Los Angeles.

Bush Covered a Lot of Ground for the Detroit Club in 1912.

Ask anybody in Boston "who is the greatest fielding shortstop in the league?" "Heine Wagner," comes back the answer without hesitation.

Put the same question to a Washingtonian and the answer is, "McBride."

Philadelphia hands the palm to Jack Barry, and along the Detroit river they will join in screeching Donie Bush.

Funny how many peerless men there can be at one position. That enthusiasm which causes the rooters to hang to their own favorites shows the secret of the popularity of the national game, but does not necessarily help to select the man who is really superior to all of his rivals.

Attention was so thoroughly concentrated upon the eastern wing of the American league circuit last season, and, consequently upon Heine Wagner, George McBride and Jack Barry—shortstops are always central figures—that little Donie Bush was almost forgotten.

That abbreviated short gardener of the Jungaleers once again in 1912 stamped himself as the greatest ground covering infielder of his time, as he did in 1911.

In 144 games last season Bush accepted 884 chances, an average of six per game. George McBride, his nearest rival, accepted a trifle less than 5.6 chances per game. Contrary to the general opinion regarding the ground covering ability of Ole Olson, the Swede stood third in the list with the credit of having accepted 5.3 chances. Then followed Weaver, Wagner, Wallace, Barry, Pecklinpaugh, Chapman and McMillan, in the order named.

If the averages mentioned in the foregoing were maintained through a season, Bush would accept just sixty-one chances more than his nearest rival. That would mean that Bush would be directly responsible for several more victories than McBride.

Gathering the opinions of the unbiased critics along the circuit, probably more than half would insist that Heine Wagner, that sparkling genius of the Red Sox, was the most wonderful wielding shortstop in the league. Perhaps it doesn't seem possible, but traveling as they traveled last year, Bush would accept just 154 more chances during a full season than the great Heine.

O'BRIEN GETS GOOD MATCH.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Young Jack O'Brien, of this city, was matched by cable yesterday to meet Fred Welsh, lightweight champion of England, in a twenty-round bout at Pontypridd, Wales, on April 2. Eugene Corri, of the National Sporting club, London, will referee. A purse of $7,500, with a privilege of 60 per cent. of the gross receipts, 75 per cent. to the winner, has been offered for the fight, which will be at the new English lightweight limit, 135 pounds.

BATTERY MEN WILL SAIL.

New York, Feb. 21.—The pitchers and catchers of the New York Americans will sail tonight to join Manager Frank Chance at Hermuda. The party will be in charge of Hal Chase. Chance wants to get his battery men into the mild climate before the other players so that when the rest of the squad arrives next week the pitchers and catchers would be prepared for the preliminary games.

WILL PLAY AGAIN TONIGHT.

As an opener for the basket ball program at the Smart school tonight the Catholic Central high school will meet the Fort Wayne high school seconds. The Central beat the St. Mary's seconds at Odeon hall last night by a score of 15 to 5.

ONE BIG DAY TO PAY THE INDIAN

New York Will Fall for Jim Thorpe and Gate Will Stand Pay.

WILL LOSE NOTHING

New York, Feb. 21.—The New York National league club with whom Jim Thorpe, the Sac and Fox Indian of the Carlisle school, finally signed to play ball, could well afford to outbid all of the other major league clubs who were seeking the redskin's services. The home of the Giants can accommodate more people than any ball park in the country, and the people who go to the olgast has gone back while I, despite my than in Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cleveland, Brooklyn, Detroit, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, or Washington, the other major league cities.

Thorpe might not be a "big card" in any city outside of New York or Chicago, unless he was really a star ball player. But in the big city, where they staud for everything and anything, all the Giants' management will have to do will be to advertise that Jim Thorpe will play on a certain day and the club will just about clean up on Thorpe's salary whether it be $5,000 or $8,000, over and above what the receipts would be under ordinary circumstances.

It will not be the bleacherites who will enable the New York National league club owners to cash on their investment. Instead it will be the 75-cent, $1 and $1.25 patrons who will turn out en masse to pay homage to the greatest athlete of this or any other age.

And just think what it would mean to the Giants if Thorpe would come across with a good brand of goods on the day he made his bow! The next time the Indian played at the Polo grounds the same bunch of fans would be back on the job and would bring some friends along to see the marvel. Then again, the Indian would be an attraction in the other cities of the circuit, not only because he is Jim Thorpe, but also because he will be a member of the Giants, the National league pennant winners.

Whether or not he has real base ball class Jim Thorpe would be a big winner in New York on any off day when "they needed the money," and could be depended upon to help fill the club's coffers in the seven other cities of the circuit just by "advertising," for advertising is the foundation of all success in this busy world of ours.

FOUND NEAR WABASH.

Miss Bertha Shockey, Who Fled Just Ahead of Wedding, is Located.

Marion, Ind., Feb. 21.—Miss Bertha Shockey, prominent woman of this county who mysteriously disappeared from this city February 11, two days before she was to have been married to Glen Phillips, young farmer living in her neighborhood, was found at Wabash late yesterday afternoon and detained there by the police unclaimed by her father, Nelson Shockey.

Miss Shockey came to Marion February 11 in company with her father to finish the buying for her wedding gown and failed to meet her father when it came time to go home. She claims she was kidnaped, loaded into an automobile and taken to Indianapolis, where she escaped from her abductors and fled. She claims only at intervals was she in her right mind and only remembers being in Danville and Decatur, Illinois, and Delphi and Lafayette, Ind. It has not been announced whether her marriage to Mr. Phillips will occur.

ANDERSON TEACHER ARRESTED.

Miss Graham Accused of Unmercifully Beating Pupil.

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 21.—Miss Florence Graham, a teacher in the public schools at Ingalls, was aarrested late yesterday afternoon by Marshal Edward Burdette, of Pendleton, charged with having unmercifully beaten Juanita Perry, the 9-year-old daughter of Rev. Herbert Perry, pastor of the M. E. church at Ingalls. It is alleged that the teacher chastised the child with a heavy wooden board five inches wide and more than an inch thick. It is said the girl is in a serious condition. The young woman gave bond for her appearance in a justice of peace court at Pendleton on February 28. Miss Graham is the daughter of Henry Graham, a wealthy farmer living near Lapel.

"PEP" CLARKE TO PLAY AT CANTON

Bade Myers Wants Him to Work With Texter as Backstop.

OUT LAST SEASON

Canton, O., Feb. 21.—Canton will have two experienced catchers unless some bolt comes from the blue and upsets the calculations now entertained by Manager Bade Myers. Myers expects to announce within a few days the signing of Roy ("Pepper") Clarke, one of the most talked of players in the Central league during the seasons of 1907-08.

When Clarke performed for Springfield, under the management of Jack Hendricks, he was acknowledged to be about the best receiver in the Central aside from Harry Ostdiek, Canton's mainstay; Dunn, of Evansville; Tieman, of South Bend, then in his prime, and Howley, of Grand Rapids, who secures his second trial in the major league the coming campaign.

Clarke has been out of the game for one year. During 1912 he did not don a uniform. His wife requested that he stay at home in Springfield. He agreed, but his heart was not stilled. For two years he had been with Bade Myers at Quincy.

"I expect Texter to do great work for Canton the coming year," said Bade Thursday. "If I can secure Clarke it will not mean that Texter will be relegated. Clarke is still a young man. He will be a big help here, and if he accepts the terms offered I will not have to worry about the backstop department."

With Jack Hendricks as manager, King Kelly and Clarke as receivers the Springfield team of 1906 was one of the best minor league organizations in the country.

Myers is a believer in quality rather than in quantity. He will apply his policy to the management of the Canton club, retaining not more than thirteen or fourteen men for the season's campaign.

Bade believes most satisfactory results can be obtained with a small squad than with one of more generous proportions. He has adopted this policy in recent years as manager of clubs in the I.-I.-I. and other leagues since leaving Canton back in 1907. His success has been marked, his clubs being up in the race season after season.

"I prefer a squad of thirteen or fourteen men to one of sixteen or more and believe that more than that number is not necessary for a minor league club," declared the Canton leader while discussing the prospects for the coming season in the Interstate. "With a smaller squad of good men I have accomplished more than with a larger squad of men not quite so good. That many players, liable at all times and known to be worth their salary, are enough to travel through the season in good shape unless a run of accidents should put several out of the game."

LEAVES TO ATTEND MORGAN.

Trip Merely Advisory, Says Prof. Bastianelli.

Rome, Feb. 21.—Prof. Giuseppe Bastianelli left this morning for Egypt to attend J. Pierpont Morgan. According to dispatches received here there have been no new developments in Mr. Morgan's condition. Prof. Bastianelli characterized his trip as merely "advisory." The professor was accompanied by his wife, who was Miss Marion Rawle, of Philadelphia.

New York, Feb. 21.—Advices from Cairo received by J. P. Morgan & Co., today in regard to the state of Mr. Morgan's health continue favorable. Nothing has been said in any of the messages, it was stated, with regard to a report that he had suffered from a stroke of apoplexy in addition to his attack of indigestion. The firm discredited the report.

GIFTS FOR MRS. TAFT.

Handsome Jewels to Be Presented by Friends Tonight.

Washington, Feb. 21.—A magnificent pearl set of studs and a diamond necklace of pure white stones for Mrs. Taft will be presented to them at the white house tonight as farewell gifts from a circle of close friends which the Tafts have made during their long residence in the national capital. The president and Mrs. Taft tonight will give their last formal entertainment at the white house, a dinner to be followed by a musicale and the presentation will be made then. Miss Mabel Boardman, of the American Red Cross and a leading spirit in raising the subscription fund for the purchase of the gifts probably will make the presentation speech. The gems were purchased in New York.

COACH LOADS OF CONVICTS.

En Route from Washington to Minnesota Penitentiary.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Chained to the car seats one prisoner to each seat two coach loads of federal convicts, were taken under heavy guard today from the District of Columbia jail to the Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater. The transfer of the prisoners was made at the instigation of the department of justice and their transfer to the Minnesota institution was made necessary by the crowded condition of the federal prisons, to which district federal prisoners generally are transferred. The convict cars will arrive at their destination Sunday morning.

FACING DIFFICULT MARCH.

Sixteen Miles of Bad Roads Confront Suffragette Pilgrims.

Elkton, Md., Feb. 21.—Refreshed by its night rest here "General" Rosaline Jones' army of the Hudson left at 9 o'clock this morning on the march to Washington. A stop for luncheon will be made at Northeast, Md. The hikers expect to reach Harve de Grace about 6 o'clock this evening, but their way lays over sixteen miles of the worst piece of road between New York and Washington. The Bayside band will meet the pilgrims at Perryville, just across the Susquehanna river from Harve de Grace, and escort them over the bridge to their stopping place for the night.

The Monks' club is today sending out invitations for a dance to be given Friday evening, Feb. 28, at the I. O. O. F. hall.

PLANS GIRLS' TRACK MEET.

Northwestern University Students to Stage a Program.

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 21.—Miss Hazel Woodhull, physical director of young women students at Northwestern university, has put forth a plan for a girls' track meet to be held in Patten gymnasium some time in March. The idea which became generally known last night at the university found much favor among the girls. Miss Woodhull said that there would be no trouble in having a larger percentage of entrants in the event than take part in such events for men. The events would include 25 and 50 yard dashes, running and standing broad and high jumps, a relay race, a shot put and a pole vault. The plans are to be finally passed upon by the women's board of athletic control.

INDIANS ARE INVITED.

Red Men Get Special Invitation to Inaugural Ceremonies.

Washington, Feb. 21.—A special invitation to attend the inauguration ceremonies March 4 was sent today by the inaugural committee to the twenty-five Indians now in New York attending the laying of the corner stone for an Indian monument in New York harbor. If the red men accept they will be provided with mounts and given a special place in the procession. They include representatives of the Sioux, Crow, Chippewa, Cheyenne, Flatheads, Grosventeres, Arikarees and Mandans.

On account of the Mexican trouble the marine corps will not be represented in the parade, it was announced.

Mrs. Alice Geake, of 510 West Jefferson street, was admitted to Hope hospital today and a surgical operation may be necessary.

UNCLE SAM TAKES A HAND.

Will Seriously Object to Summary Sentence of Madero.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Secretary Knox, with the approval of President Taft, has instructed Ambassador Wilson to convey to Gen. Huerta in diplomatic terms the intimation that the United States would seriously object to a summary execution or sentence of Madero. It was not felt here that the former president should be slaughtered or put out of the way for crimes which seemed purely political without a fair and open trial. This view was made plain to Huerta and the fact was not concealed that the United States looked with disfavor upon the shooting of Gustavo Madero, the president's brother. The administration's attitude toward the provisional government in Mexico was discussed at today's cabinet meeting. President Taft and Mr. Knox have never believed, it is said, that Madero was a strong president for a republic sown with revolution. They have believed, however, that he had displayed many humane traits and that he is entitled to hearing. They have no particular interest other than that of humanity in what is done with him, if it is done in legal fashion.

Francisco I. Madero, deposed president of Mexico, will not be railroaded to jail, thrown into a mad house or summarily executed by Provisional President Huerta, according to reports today from Ambassador Wilson. Madero, the ambassador reports, will be given a fair trial and possibly the worst fate that will await him will be exile.

Washington Masonic Memorial Association Meets.

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 21.—When the third annual meeting of the George Washington Masonic Memorial association was called to order today grand masters from thirty-five states had arrived prepared to welcome President Taft when he reached here in a private car from Washington over the electric line. The principal topic of discussion at the morning session was the erection of a temple in this city as a memorial to the first president. The sessions will last until tomorrow and tomorrow morning a pilgrimage will be made to the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon.

SMALLPOX SCARE ABOUT OVER.

No New Cases Reported From State School for Two Days.

It is now thought by the local health authorities that the smallpox scare at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth is practically over as no cases have developed in the last two days. The thirty-six patients who are confined with the disease are rapidly convalescing and it is hoped that the quarantine may soon be lifted. All of the cases are a mild form of smallpox, and many of the patients are not ill, but merely broken out with the marks of the malady.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL---25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or Dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil.—In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Adv.

DIED THREE HOURS AFTER ACCIDENT

Charley Vaughn Quits the Pennsylvania Shops to Go on Farm.

William Van Dusen, a tramp, residence unknown, lost both legs at 8 o'clock Thursday night when he fell in attempting to get on the eastbound Wabash Continental limited, No. 4, as it was passing through Montpelier, O. He was taken to the hospital, where he died at 11:15 o'clock Thursday night. His object was to get on the train and ride "blind baggage" to Detroit. Nothing could be learned of the man, as he was unable to talk but little after the accident.

PENNSY SHOPS TO WORK.

Too Busy to Close on Account of Holliday.

The foremen of the various departments of the Pennsylvania shops, were instructed to keep them in operation the usual hours tomorrow. Tomorrow is the anniversary of George Washington and in times when work is not so pressing it is observed by closing the shops. This time, however, the necessity for work is greater than at other similar periods and the word went out to run the shops as usual. The Wabash shops will close.

WILL SOON BE FARMER.

Charles M. Vaughn Quits Shops After Ten Years.

Charles M. Vaughn will soon be a "horny handed tiller of the soil." He has secured a lease on the 150 acre farm of his father-in-law, C. Snyder, two miles east of Arcola, and is now preparing to move his family thereon in order that he may be ready to take up the spring work when the time arrives. Mr. Vaughn worked in the Pennsylvania shops ten years and for the past two or three years he has been assistant to Tank Shop Foreman I. Wise. His resignation became effective last night and when he called at the shops this morning to say good by to the boys, they presented him with a very useful farm impliment. George Bowman, a carpenter from the round house, has been appointed Mr. Vaugh's successor. He took up the work this morning. Mr. Bowman has been employed with the company for some time.

HYACINTH SOCIETY CELEBRATES.

Members of the Ladies' societies of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers from Logansport, Montpelier, Peru, Crestline and Garrett were in attendance at the celebration of Hyacinth lodge No. 38, last evening. It was the thirteenth anniversary of the organization of Hyacinth lodge and the turn given the controversy of the firemen over the wage question on the lines in the eastern and middle states put the ladies, whose husbands are interested, in condition to enjoy themselves to a greater extent than they would have been had the matter of arbitration been undecided. Following a banquet came a dance to music furnished by the Kizer orchestra.

USE TRACKS FOR HIGHWAY.

The school children residing in territory west of St. Mary's avenue make a highway of the Lake Erie and Western tracks between the avenue and the street on which the Bloomingdale school house is located. They do this against the remonstrances of Crossing Watchman Taylor because it is a trifle the nearest route and is frought with a little excitement, not to say anything about the danger, now and then. A fatality or loss of limb by some child will probably make the others take a more safe route for awhile.

RATES FOR BOWLERS.

Ed Haas, passenger agent of the Wabash at this point, has been advised that the company will make a $3 round trip rate to Toledo for the Fort Wayne bowlers, who will attend the annual tournament in that city, which begins February 28. The local team will enter the contest on Monday, March 3, and will go to Toledo the preceding day. The railroad will furnish a special car for the party, who will leave on train No. 18, Sunday morning.

HAS GONE TO HOSPITAL.

Engineer J. F. Nickell, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, who has been ailing for some time, is now in Hope hospital where he can have the benefits of trained nurses. Mr. Nickell, in point of service, is the oldest employe on the G. R. & I. road. His early railroad work was on the Pennsylvania. In 1874, when the G. R. & I. was only a year or two old, he was transferred from the Pennsylvania to that line and has been there ever since.

WORKED ON MEXICAN ROAD.

J. L. Dumont, a switchman recently from Mexico City, took employment at the Nickel Plate yards yesterday. Mr Dumont left the Mexican capital last week, being induced to get by the turbulent state of affairs existing there. He can tell some thrilling stories of the battles between federals and rebels he saw in the land of the Greaser. He was employed as trainman on a road running into Mexico City.

EIGHT NEW FIREMEN.

L. L. Wilkins, Roy Gibford, L. Bigelow, M. McCoy, Arthur P. Engle and Harvey Freise on the Fort Wayne division, and H. E. Nulf and J. F. Kunkelman on the Chicago division, are new firemen on the Nickel Plate. The road is pushed to the limit of its power to handle the business that is coming to it.

RELATIVES CALLED TO BEDSIDE.

The Fort Wayne relatives of J. C. Cothrell have been summoned to his bedside at his home in Kalamazoo. His condition is such as to give alarm. Mr. Cothrell is an engineer on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road. He lived here up to two years ago.

TOOK JOBS WITH NICKEL PLATE.

J. Ralph Miller, late a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio road, with headquarters in Garrett, took employment with the Nickel Plate yesterday. S. K. Moore is also a new brakeman on the Nickel Plate.

FOOT BADLY BRUISED.

J. Haudenschild, boilermaker at the Pennsylvania shops, will be off duty a few days as a result of an accident yesterday. A heavy clamp fell upon and severely bruised one of his feet.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Brakeman J. Johnson, of the Nickel Plate, is sick and off duty.

F. W. Brandt, Pennsylvania engineer, is off duty on account of the serious illness of his wife.

John Pullman, a laborer in the Pennsylvania shops, has gone to Gary for a visit over Sunday.

Charles A. Snyder, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, has gone to Chicago to visit over Sunday.

Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, was in the city this morning on business for the company.

After a week's illness, C. H. Bredmeyer has returned to his duties in the Pennsylvania boiler shop.

Nickel Plate Firemen G. Seymore, S. A. Robbins and W. T. Hooper are off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Brakeman, who had been away to look after some private business, has returned to his duties.

Blacksmith Charles Rodenbeck, of the Pennsylvania, was summoned to Logansport last night to attend the funeral of a relative.

Machinist W. F. O'Conner, of the Pennsylvania shops, and Mrs. O'Conner will go to Grand Rapids tomorrow morning to spend Sunday with his brother, M. J. O'Conner.

Fireman J. R. Clark, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to the country near Kendallville to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

Nickel Plate Engineer J. A. Swartz received a telegram yesterday calling him to Logansport on business connected with a patent.

Pennsylvania shopmen who are sick and off duty today are J. Junk, W. A. Pendergast, A. J. Offerle, H. F. Bennett and J. A. Dahman.

F. B. Knox, Nickel Plate engineer, was called out of the city yesterday on private business that will keep him away until next Monday.

J. Ossaforth took a position at the Pennsylvania boiler shop and has been assigned to the work of heating rivets. He is just out of school.

Elmer E. Hess, messenger at the Pennsylvania machine shop, and his mother have gone to Chicago to see a relative who is very sick.

Lawrence Laughlin took employment with Foreman Joseph Schwartzkopf in the punch department of the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning.

A. J. Schmidt, a Pennsylvania boilermaker, had the misfortune to have one of his elbows bruised and wrenched yesterday so badly that he is unable to work.

J. W. Loney and J. O'Reilly, of the Wabash pipefitting shop, have returned from Delray, Mich., where they were engaged in some special work for the company.

William Israel, of the Illinois Central, and W. E. Smith, of the Northern Pacific, traveling passenger agents, were in the city this morning calling upon local ticket agents.

Conductors William Mallman and J. Poland, of the Nickel Plate, who have been working steadily for some time, have obtained a few days leave of absence for rest purposes.

Engineer J. F. Carpenter has a crippled arm and Engineers W. Swart, W. L. Hoy and J. T. McKinney and Fireman M. W. DeWitt are disabled by sickness. They are Pennsylvania employes.

General Foreman C. L. Cooper, of the Nickel Plate round house and shops, will move his family here from Chicago as soon as he can find suitable quarters for housekeeping. He hopes to be able to move early in March.

Frank J. Schwanz, of the Wabash pipefitting shop, and Wentz Gabriel, of the machine shop, went to Springfield, Ill., yesterday to attend a meeting of the executive board of the federated crafts of the Wabash system.

Miss Bertha Hermans and Miss Irene Martin, clerks and stenographers in the Wabash division storekeeper's office, will leave tomorrow afternoon for Detroit. After a few hours' visit there they will go on to Niagara Falls to spend Sunday in viewing the sights.

Engineer George Swarts, who was the fireman on Nickel Plate engine 123 when it went into the ditch and killed Engineer Sliter three or four months ago, is temporarily disabled by the injury to one of his feet sustained in that accident. The member had, he thought, recovered.

74 DEATHS DURING JANUARY.

DOWN AND OUT, RETURNS $113.

Van Wert Man Proves Honest Even Though "Broke."

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—If Diogenes were alive today and could visit Indianapolis he would set down his lantern and announce that his search for an honest man was ended. It would end at police headquarters, and the object of his search would be Ray Carpenter, of Van Wert, O. Carpenter, a hard-working lad, came here to obtain employment. He was "down and out," but when he found a wallet containing $113 yesterday afternoon on a downtown corner he hunted a newspaper, found the loss had not been advertised, and then took the purse to police headquarters. There the money awaits the owner.

DEATH CALLS JOSEPH BETZOLD.

Richmond Police Commissioner Succumbs to Pneumonia at His Home.

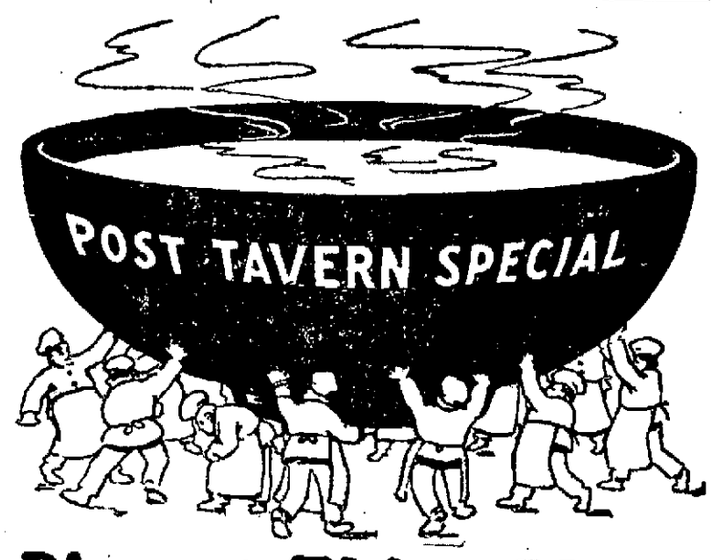

Richmond, Ind., Feb. 21.—Joseph Betzold, a member of the metropolitan board of police commissioners, died yesterday of pneumonia, following injuries received two weeks ago. His body will be buried Saturday with full military honors by the local G. A. R. post and the police department. In 1879 Betzold became a member of the Richmond police department. He was promoted to be a sergeant, then chief of police and on retirement from active duty was made a member of the police board. He was severely wounded several years ago in a fight with a burglar.

THREE HELD FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Accused of Hold-Up Game, Man and Two Women Under Bond.

ANOTHER IS SOUGHT

William Farnan, Fay Martin and Lillian Hammond, charged in the city court this morning with robbing Duvalle Walters, along the Nickel Plate tracks in the east side of the city last night, shortly before midnight, saw their cases continued until Wednesday morning and are held under $1,000 bonds each. The cases were not tried this morning because the police are looking for Joe Farnan, who is said to have been the ring leader of the conspiracy to "roll" Walters.

William Farnan was arrested on Calhoun street, near the Pennsylvania tracks, this morning at 1:30 o'clock and the two women were apprehended an hour later at Baker and Harrison streets. The other Farnan is said to have been in the hands of one of the officers early this morning, but the fellow made the officer believe that he had the wrong man and was let go. The police departments of surrounding towns have been notified to be on the lookout for him and it is thought that he will soon be arrested.

Walters tells the police that the two Farnans were down town with him yesterday afternoon and that they induced him to accompany them, together with the two girls on a good time last night. After visiting saloons in the east side they entered a shed along the Nickel Plate railroad near the soap factory in that section. Here, Walters says, he was robbed of $11 in money and a note on the Edgerton National bank, of Edgerton, Ohio, for $135. Several receipts, together with the note, and a few other articles, were contained in a pocketbook and the police found these this morning along the Nickel Plate tracks, east of Glasgow avenue.

According to Walters' story he was ordered to turn over his money, but when he refused he was struck and knocked down and stripped of his clothes, which were searched and then returned to him. He made his way to the police station as soon as possible, and the police immediately put out the dragnet for the perpetrators of the deed. Walters lives at 1021 Archer avenue.

Fined for Abstructing Street.

Anton G. Anthony paid a fine of $1 and costs for obstructing the public highway. Anthony sells confections from a wagon on the streets and refuses to heed the warnings of the police to stay away from the transfer corner. Last night he stationed his wagon at the transfer corner on Main street, between Calhoun and Court streets, obstructing traffic in this way. He paid a similar fine a few months ago for the same offense.

The Other Cases.

William Garrett, charged with drunkenness, when arraigned, said that he felt guilty, although he didn't remember anything about his spree. He was sent to jail for eleven days to refresh his recollection. Frank Miller, another drunk, drew a fine of $1 and costs.

HEN WORSTS CAT IN ROYAL FIGHT

BIDDY WINS A BOUT

Packer, Conn., Feb. 21.—Politics may make strange bedfellows, but the cold-hot-warm-cool weather of the last week or two in eastern Connecticut is making even stranger nest mates. Nowadays Alice in Wonderland hasn't anything on the average Nutmeg farmer as he strolls over his rugged acres.

George Ruggles, a farmer living a few miles east of Packer, hitched up Belisarius, his flea bitten gray family driving horse, and came to town almost bursting with details of a discovery in his north pasture lot, adjoining the Christmas tree preserve. Mr. Ruggles modestly admits that he labors under no George Washington handicap and could weave an animal romance or even a plain "nature fake" with the best of 'em if he felt so inclined, but that his strong ethical nature enables him always to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, "and you may kiss the book on that," as the late Mr. Handy Solomon was wont to say.

Having made clear Mr. Ruggles' panoply of veracity and other homely virtues, it is now safe to disclose that he found a cat and kittens and a hen and flock of newly hatched chickens occupying one and the same nest. It was a regular "happy family" of the old time menagerie variety, differing from the show assemblage only in the fact that it had been started upon a purely voluntary basis of association.

It occurred to Mr. Ruggles that a sudden change in the weather might endanger the lives of the chicks, so he determined to take the flock to his barn. And right here things began to happen. The mother cat made no outward protest when Biddy was removed from the nest, but when the farmer attempted to take the chicks the cat spat and clawed in the most approved style. When the furred and feathered playmates finally had been separated the hen escaped from her captors and went squawking back to retrieve the kittens.

Biddy and Tabby engaged in a battle royal for ascendency in the mixed household. Biddy was victorious and gathered the kittens under her wings. When the hen and chickens had been removed to the barn the chicks were placed with the kittens and Biddy "mothered" the whole outfit. After nightfall the kittens were returned to Tabby, and thus the strange partnership family finally was broken up.

HOME-MADE MENTHO-LAXENE

The Cold, Catarrh and Cough Remedy That Is Imitated, But Never Equalled in Cheapness and Genuine Curative Qualities.

Obtain the Pure Essence Mentho-Laxene at Drug Store and Mix With Granulated Sugar and Water, Making a Full Pint.

Usually a family spends two to five dollars every winter for cough, cold and catarrh remedies, buying 25c worth at a time.

For instance, a two-ounce bottle, at 25c, will contain about four-fifths "syrup" and one-fifth "medicine." That's paying too much for ordinary syrup; you can make a half gallon of syrup for 25c.

The syrup, extra bottles, labels, corks, cartons, etc., make this method of buying very expensive by the end of the year.

A little thought and wisdom will save any family several dollars and give them purer and better medicine, too.

Make a simple syrup with a pint of granulated sugar and a half pint of boiling water; then buy the pure concentrated essence Mentho-Laxene at your drug store (2 1-2 oz. bottle), and empty it into a pint bottle or jar and then fill it up with the syrup.

Now you have a season's supply of the purest, best and most promptly effective cold and catarrh cure and cough medicine that it is possible to obtain. It keeps indefinitely and cures young and old of colds, catarrh, coughs, bronchitis, hoarseness, shortness of breath and all lung and bronchial trouble. It is the only remedy that cures coughs and drives catarrhal matter out of the system, by its tonic-laxative action. It improves the appetite, reduces fever and strengthens the system, thus avoiding chronic ailments and consumption.

Directions with each bottle of Essence Mentho-Laxene tell how to make and how to take. The manufacturers also guarantee to refund money to any one not pleased by its thorough effectiveness.—Adv.

An Everyday View of the Next Sunday-School Lesson

February 23, 1913—Abram and Lot. Lesson Text, Genesis 13:18. Golden Text, Proverbs 10:22. The blessing of Jehovah, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow therewith.

The difference between men ancient and modern is largely one of time. Given similar circumstances and the results are essentially alike. Lot lived in a distant age, but his counterpart is no stranger to the present. He was a nephew of Abram and according to Jewish history his adopted son. The two were associated in business and naturally became rivals in the pursuit of wealth. Their wealth consisted largely in lands, flocks and herds. This required a large force of employes, who in our day would be known as ranchmen. Their flocks and herds increased so rapidly that the land was not able to bear them and the result was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. Abram was the senior member of the firm—and also the patriarch of the family. He was a man of great foresight and readily perceived that the contention of the servants would yet extend to their masters. Family quarrels are always bitter. Blood is thicker than water in hate as well as in love. It is better to live apart in friendship than as neighbors in strife.

Abram and Lot Come to Parting of the Ways.

Contention is often the result of conditions. England and America as two nations are friends, as one they were in constant strife. Neither Abram nor Lot was by nature quarrelsome, but no two men ever lived at peace in a house only large enough for one. The best way to remove an effect is to remove the cause, so Abram proposed an amicable separation. "And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdsmen and thy herdsmen; for we are brethren. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me; if thou will take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left."

The proposition was the crisis of Lot's life. It put him at the parting of the ways and compelled him to act for himself. Hitherto he had been dependent on Abram. Together as friends they had faced famine in a foreign country, but now on their return success threatened to force them apart. Prosperity is a most excellent interpreter of character. It brings to the surface the best or the worst. Success with Abram intensified his devotion to God. Wherever he went he built an altar and called upon his God. Not so with Lot. God held only a secondary part in all that he did. Lot is not alone in this. Many a modern Lot is just the same way.

Lot, Omitting God from His Considerations, Makes Evil Choice.

Abram and Lot were dwelling near to Bethel in the land of promise. Lot must have known that the region about was rich in divine expectation, but this seems to have had no influence on him. His place of observation has been approximately identified just east of Bethel. An English writer says that "on three sides the view was not inviting to a shepherd's eye. The verdant valleys were mostly out of sight, and what met the gaze were bare hills, and summit after summit unclothed with trees, and sinking into the blue distance. On the north were the mountains that divide Samaria from Judea: westward and southward rose the bleak hills of Judea and beyond the slopes of Hebron. But eastward the prospect was different. Down the valley could be seen the tropical luxuriance of the river."

"And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the Plain of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere . . . like the land of Egypt. So Lot chose him all the Plain of the Jordan." He and Abram had separated forever, one to dwell in the cities of the plain, one to dwell on Canaan.

The choice was fatal not only in results but at the beginning. That Lot should have made the selection he did was in accord with the logic of the situation. He was to be a shepherd, and the well watered plain of the Jordan was more promising than the barren hills of Judea. He acted on the appearance of things. Our modern Lots are no wiser. They leave God out of their motives and act from no considerations save those of self. Lot left behind more than he saw. The companionship of Abram was to be exchanged for the association of the wicked. He must have known that God had elected his family to be a people separate from those that dwelt in the valley, but to all this he was blind. The future of his children failed to move him. He would be rich, even at the expense of morals and of God. His tent was pitched toward Sodom. Possibly he had no intention of ever becoming an inhabitant of that city. No one ever made the journey from Bethel to Sodom in a day. The usual intention is to live for a time in the valley and then return to Canaan. But the Jordan is a precipitous stream. Its waters run toward Sodom. One gets used to strange things in the valley. They fit him for a residence further on. This is as true of the modern Lot as it was of the ancient. An inhabitant of Sodom Lot became. His daughters were given in marriage to Sodomites and his apostasy was complete.

Abram Reflects God; Lot Begins and Ends in Self.

But God did not forget Abram in his loneliness back there at Bethel. Once more the Almighty sought him out and renewed the promise which he made years before. Abram went on from strength to strength not only in wealth but in power with God. The two characters stand out in the widest contrast. Sin always destroys the better part of one's nature. Lot appears to have forgotten the patriarch and was content to live in the sight of sin. As for Abram, his interest in his nephew grew in proportion to his absence. Once he delivered him out of the hands of his captors, and at the last prayed that he might be spared at the destruction of the city. Each grew into the embodiment of his own choice. One reflected God, while the other began and ended in self.

Lot is more than history. He is born anew with every generation and keeps on acting the same part. The fascinations of the valley are ever luring our young men and women away from the teachings of Bethel. Once our tent is pitched toward Sodom the city is not far distant.

"FAT" LITTLE MAN WAS THIN.

Victim of Gotham Policeman Conceals Whole Wardrobe on Person.

New York, Feb. 21.—A fat little man whispering with two others in the shadow of an elevated station aroused the curiosity of Policeman Park. He walked toward them and the two started to run.

The fat little man made little headway. When the policeman began to search him he inventoried the following reason why the little man, who was not fat at all, but very thin, could not run: One mackintosh coat, one black overcoat, one blue serge suit, one shabby brown suit, heavy underclothing.

The prisoner said he was Joseph Carr, a moving van helper, but refused to tell where he collected his wardrobe. He was locked up as a suspicious person.

OLD INDIAN KILLER SHOOTS.

Muzzle Loader, Dug Up and Used as Poker, Kicks Back.

Bloomsburg, Pa., Feb. 21.—A load of shot, probably intended for man or beast in the Indian days of Columbia county, narrowly escaped causing the death of Thomas Sitler of Briar Creek. It was last spring, while plowing, that an old muzzle loader was unearthed. Eighteen inches below the surface it lay, so deep that ordinary spading had never struck it.

The exceptionally long barrel made the rusted gun a good instrument to stir up the fire while butchering, and so it was being used. There was a loud explosion.

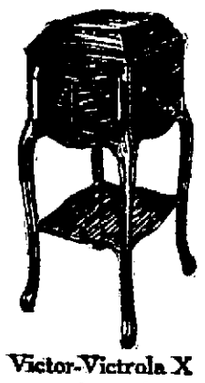

Sitler cried out that he had been shot, but it proved only his hat had been shot to pieces.

THREE HURT IN TROLLEY CRASH

Interurban and City Car in a Collision at Richmond.

OVER SCORE SHAKEN

Richmond, Ind., Feb. 21.—Three persons were seriously injured and more than a score slightly hurt or badly shaken up as a result of a collision between a west-bound Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern traction car, leaving Richmond at 7 o'clock last evening, and a city street car at East Haven avenue and National road, west.

Seriously injured: William Allsbrook, of Richmond, passenger on city car; three ribs and right hip fractured. Condition critical. Stanley Gist, motorman of the city car; knee fractured and internal injuries; condition critical. Miss Flossie Railsback, Richmond, passenger on interurban car; rendered unconscious by blow on head; internal injuries feared.

Miss Railsback was taken to her home in a phaeton, while Gist and Allsbrook were hurried to the city in a street car and then taken to the hospital.

The city car was standing on the East Haven avenue siding waiting for the interurban car to pass. The front truck wheels of the traction car passed safely over the switch frogs, but the rear truck wheels jumped the tracks, throwing the rear end of the interurban car against the front end of the city car with such violence as to almost demolish the street car and to badly wreck the rear end of the traction car.

The city car was well filled and there were several passengers on the interurban. That there were not a larger number killed or injured is considered remarkable.

SAYS PRAYER WAS AN INSULT

O'Neill Explains Action in Checking Minister in Invocation.

WHAT PASTOR SAYS

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—"The prayer was an insult to the senate," thus Lieutenant Governor W. P. O'Neill explained his action in cutting short the prayer being offered in the senate yesterday by the Rev. J. R. Henry, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist church, of Indianapolis.

Mr. Henry, who had just finished a prayer in the house, had prayed to God to speed the day when the liquor traffic would be broken and that the alms houses, jails and penitentiaries would cease to be filled with victims of rum and was continuing.

"Bang," sounded the lieut.-governor's gavel.

"You are here to make a prayer and not a political speech," Mr. O'Neill said to the minister. "The clerk will proceed with the reading of the journal."

While the clerk was preparing to read the journal, Mr. Henry hurriedly finished his prayer and quickly left the senate chamber. He declined to make any comment.

Calls It Insult.

"The prayer was an insult to the senate," said Mr. O'Neill. "His reference to rum and the liquor business was all right. I agree with everything he said on that subject but when he prayed for a dissolution of the partnership between the state and criminals I regarded that as going too far. It was casting an insult in the faces of the senators so I stopped him. He was supposed to be offering a prayer, asking divine blessing on the session and not to be making a political speech. God does not need advice on politics."

In the house, the Rev. Mr. Henry said in the course of his prayer: "The members of the legislature had accepted bribe money from the liquor business when the state took the saloonkeeper's money for license to run saloons." Several members of the house glanced around at their neighbors but said nothing.

It was the first time that a minister offering a prayer in either branch of the legislature had been rebuked in such a manner and the incident created a sensation.

Misinterpreted, He Said.

"Mr. O'Neill misinterpreted my prayer," said the Rev. Mr. Henry last night. "I had no intention of insulting the senate, and I am sure that I did not. I did not pray for the Lord to remove the criminals from the senate. What I really said was, 'the Lord-hasten the time when these men will see to it that we no longer take the hush money of the saloons.' "

FAMOUS ATHLETE IS PAUPER.

Former Champion of World Lives in Poverty.

London, Feb. 21.—Donald Dinnie, at one time champion all-round athlete of the world, is now, at the age of 76, living in poverty at Croydon. Winner of 11,000 contests and innumerable medals, he was able for fifty years to live on the prizes he had won, but all that is exhausted and a fund is being raised to keep him in comfort for the remainder of his life.

Dinnie was a great favorite with Queen Victoria at the Highland Games, where he never met an equal. He was born at Aboyne, in Aberdeenshire, and stood six feet one inch in his stockings. He made records at all kinds of feats—hammer throwing, stone putting, tossing the caber, wrestling, and has been champion all-round athlete in America, Canada and South Africa. He won the American Police Gazette mixed wrestling championship and in 1885 the Melbourne tournament, when he wrestled in seven styles. In 1884 he put up a deposit to lift two tons, but nobody challenged him.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face May Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles is the discovery of an eminent skin specialist, and is so uniformly successful that it is sold by Meyer Bros. Co. under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

PLEADS FOR REAL JUSTICE, HE SAYS

California Professor is Teaching Striking Doctrine.

IT MARKS ADVANCE

(By Vivian Pierce.)

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—Before there can be a remedy for the property bias of the courts there must come a change in the hearts of judges—they should be made to study economics and sociology as well as law.

* * *

Our judges in dealing with constitutional questions have adopted a narrow policy which accords well with the interests of the rich, but leaves the poor defenseless.

* * *

The judges have carried the doctrine of injunction too far. They are devoted to the interests of property.

The courts are not genuinely respected. The great laboring class looks on them as their natural enemy.

* * *

Thomas H. Reed, associate professor of government in the University of California, is the one who said these things, preaching them right out loud in his classes. He is the young man who has introduced what he calls "the new politics" into the university course. There's nothing very remarkable these days in such an expression regarding our courts. But the remarkable thing is that Reed is preaching these things in a California university.

The twelve lectures that Reed is now delivering before the boys and girls who are what he calls "the hope of California," would have made the professors of five years ago turn green; the regents would request so daring a young man to pack his trunk and depart "on an extended leave of absence." But "the new politics in California has changed this. Maybe California professors can now preach their honest beliefs without fear of losing their jobs.

What Reed Dreams.

Reed, who left the university to become executive secretary to Governor Hiram Johnson and then returned to his first love, is a mild looking young man with pale blue eyes and very pale hair, absorbed in the theory of government and in the dream that he may plant seeds that are to impel the future lawmakers to whom he lectures to bring about a new social justice.

PROF. THOMAS H. REED.

As he set forth to me the importance of the mere seed sower, Reed was constantly interrupted by this new generation that is knocking at the door—boy students, clean-looking, immature young giants, who treated Reed as if he were one of them. "These are the great hope of California," he said. "They're our one hope of carrying out the program that people like myself can only talk of. That's the actual army of conquest—over greed and injustice and political corruption.

"The girls? There are more girls interested in the government course today than any preceding year in the university—the result of suffrage. Out of my freshman class of 320 forty per cent are girls."

Then Reed admitted that he had to hurry away to the girls' building, where the girls of the parliamentary law class who had formed a debating club were holding something between a "jinks" and a pink tea—with "an awfully serious addition on the side." Professor Reed was this awfully serious addition.

I sneaked out and followed the professor. That hall was filled with pretty girls of every size and complexion, who greeted Professor Reed with loud handclapping. His "act" was sandwiched in between a ravishing young girl who danced something a good deal like the Tango, and another who "did" a coon song. And Reed was no less colorful in his way than they.

I took down a few of his mots:

Stands by Principle.

"The men and women we send to the legislature to represent us will have to learn to take punishment for principles—the principles we sent them up there to represent. A lot of them can't stand punishment.

"When a clever lobbyist with favors to trade comes up to you and takes you by the lapel—I mean jabot, or whatever you call it—too many of you will melt, jellify—unless you learn now to take punishment for principle.

What Patriotism Is.

"Most of you like flags and drums and processions and celebrations—and call it patriotism. Patriotism is merely putting the interests and rights of the community before your own.

"If there is no hell there ought to be one—you women ought to make one—for the politicians adorning the front ranks of life—those who put property rights before human rights, who debauch the servants of the government for profit. You women ought to make a hell for them—and make it as hot as the scorn of good women can make it."

Girls Liked It.

Rather an unusual line of talk for a college professor to hand out to a bunch of young girls at a tea? After the final burst of girlish applause, I understood why Reed had declared proudly that he gave up his post at Sacramento because he felt that in the universities—with these pretty girls and growing boys—lies the future of not only this state, but the nation. Reed knows more of the winding ways of the politician than most university professors. If the University of California continues to stand for his "radicalism," his dream of a new California is likely to come true one of these days.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

DUST SWEEPS OVER SNOW.

Westerners Treated to New Combination of Weather.

Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 21.—The weather man sprung a new one on the people of this community in a duststorm in midwinter with snow on the ground.

The storm developed in the southeast about the middle of the afternoon and cut from view the Milton, Freewater and College Place stations, which usually are visible from the observatory building. Residents who saw it thought it fog until assured by Observer Grover that it was nothing but dust particles. The dust apparently came from snow-covered and wet ground.

VINCENT ASTOR TO BE A FARMER

Richest Young American to Study Scientific Agriculture.

SAYS HE'LL LIKE IT

Albany, Feb. 21.—Vincent Astor America's richest young man, will devote much of his time to scientific agriculture. Many of the millions that came to him from his father, John Jacob Astor, who died in the Titanic disaster, will be devoted to experiments designed to show that farming as a business can be conducted profitably and to promote the "back-to-the-soil" movement.

Young Astor has determined upon this field of endeavor upon the advice of Governor William Sulzer. The governor and the young multimillionaire of twenty-one sat up almost all night recently at the People's House considering which road to accomplishment Astor should follow.

"You're only looking out of one window now," was one of the first statements made by the governor to Astor when the discussion between the two settled down to what the governor called "tacks and hard facts."

"What window is that?" asked the young millionaire.

"The window of idleness and pleasure," replied the governor.

"You have come to me for advice, asking my views," continued Mr. Sulzer. "I'm going to put nine new windows in your house. You can look out of each of these windows with me and you will get a greater perspective. After you have looked out of all the windows select the view you like best and the field wherein you think you can be the most useful and then go to work and do something for your fellow man. Nobody can do more than you can to make the world better and happier."

During this dialogue the governor and young Astor sat facing each other in the library of the People's House, the ten feet that separated them being occupied by a broad flat-top library desk, on which reposed law books, papers of a political character, tabulations of figures and a cabinet size picture of Silas Wright, the one governor among all his predecessors whom Mr. Sulzer wishes to emulate.

"Do you want to undertake the law?" asked the governor, picking up a law book illustrative of the first of his "nine windows."

"No, governor, I have no leaning in that direction," replied Astor.

In succession the governor verbally drew aside the curtains exhibiting the other eight "windows." These were medicine, politics, journalism, mercantile pursuits, organized philanthropy, mechanics, finance and agriculture."

"Well," said Governor Sulzer in relating his midnight talk with the young millionaire, "Astor spent some time looking out of these windows, and he didn't seem to take much interest in any one of them until I went to the agricultural window. The moment he looked out of that he exclaimed: 'That is my field. That is what I would like to do. I have one of the finest farms in the state of New York down along the Hudson river, at Rhinecliff, of over 6,000 acres.

"'My father never did anything with it,' he said. 'I am going to make that farm an experimental farm along scientific lines. And everything I do there will be told to the people of the state of New York and the people of the country, so that they will know, so that they will have the information, so that they can have the knowledge. I will have the soils tested and find out what they lack, find out what they are best adapted for and give the knowledge which comes from these experiments to the world of agriculture for its progress and benefit.'"

Governor Sulzer's story of what took place at the interview between him and young Astor was occasioned by the announcement that he had appointed young Astor chairman of New York's delegation to the general assembly of the international institute of agriculture to be held in Rome, Italy, next May.

On the commission also are Benjamin F. Yonkum, William C. Brown, Henry Morgenthau jr. of New York, head of the senior class of agriculture at Cornell; Elliott B. Norris of Sodus, J. William Sanbury of Busti and Frederick H. Allen of New York. Mr. Norris and Mr. Sanbury are practical farmers and connected with the State Grange. Mr. Allen is a gentleman farmer.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a half teaspoonful of Magnesurate Compound in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Magnesurate Compound is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach, but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid, the cause of all the trouble. Get a little Magnesurate Compound from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the Magnesurate Compound as directed above, and see if I'm not right."

SAYS SLEEPLESS STORY IS A FAKE

Scientist Ridicules Report of Twenty Years' Insomnia.

HOWARD IN A DENIAL

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 21 Harvard professors, with a single notable exception, are enjoying a hoax that an inventive writer unloaded on one of the morning papers as "exclusive," concerning an unnamed member of the faculty who has gone without sleep for twenty years. The newspaper that carried the story gave it lavish display and eased its own rest by sending it to affiliated papers in New York and elsewhere for outside gullible consumption.

The nameless educator, according to the story, felt himself on the brink of insanity from chronic insomnia until, about twenty years ago, he discovered "the twilight state," which is described as "scientific rest more satisfying than sleep," which restores vigor in one-half the time that sleep requires and permits the mind to work twenty-four hours a day.

Experts who became interested in the case persuaded the nameless one, the story went on, to submit himself to a series of tests in the State Psychopathic hospital, under "Dr. Lydiard H. Horton and other eminent psychologists," and in the psychological laboratory of Harvard, under Prof. Munsterburg, head of the laboratory. Although the subject had learned alone how to throw himself into the "twilight state" and needed no outside aids to obtain perfect rest without sleep, the experts spent several weeks in building a rest chair "so comfortable that merely to look at it makes one drowsy, and to sit in it is like drifting on a whisper of sweetest music to the portals of Morpheus' realms" and which was devised "to aid subjects to relax as a gallon of molasses on a slab of cold marble."

The man Horton, quoted in the story as an eminent psychologist, is not a physician, but only a first-year man in the Harvard medical school. Prof. Munsterburg, however, is at the head of the laboratory and is careful of his reputation. He denounced the story as pure invention at class and said:

"The story of a sleepless professor at Harvard is absurd. Any interview with me that I personally knew that a professor here had not slept for twenty years is absolutely false. A reporter asked me if I knew a certain teacher in the college, whom I will not name. I said that I did. He told me about the man's sleeplessness. I replied that I had never heard of it and thought it highly absurd."

MAKES PLEA FOR POLICEMEN.

Los Angeles Woman Officer Urges More Social Recognition.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, a woman police officer of Los Angeles, in an address before the Woman's City club, advised college men to get jobs on the police force. She also advised citizens to associate with policemen at other times than just after an automobile bandit had robbed them of their valuables or they had been hit on the head with a blackjack.

"College men should seek places on police forces," she said. "They could do much good for society in such positions.

"We must treat our policemen better. We never speak to them except to complain; we never invite them socially to our homes and we force them to associate in the main with people they wish to forget."

Nickel Plate Engineer John Hood was off duty yesterday to attend the funeral of a friend.

DRAWS WILL AND FALLS DEAD.

Man Directs That His Body Be Given to Medical School.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 21.—Abraham Whipple indicted a brief note directing that when he died his body should be given to the medical school of the University of Minnesota. A few hours later he fell dead in the street and search of his pockets revealed his last will and testament.

REASON FOR LACK OF MEN TEACHERS

Superintendent Blames Equal Pay for Shortage in Supply.

IT IS DETRIMENTAL

New York, Feb. 21.—Superintendent of Schools William H. Maxwell is much concerned over the shortage in the supply of men teachers for the city schools. He attributes the falling off to the equal-pay salary law, which reduced the salaries of men in the elementary grades by 20 per cent, while increasing those of women 25 per cent, and in the high schools increased the pay of men 10 per cent and of women 40 per cent. The effect is strikingly illustrated in the rolls of the training schools for teachers. In 1908 fifty men were admitted and in 1912 only two.

"The reason why it is desirable to have men teach boys in the higher grades," Mr. Maxwell says, "is not that they teach the school subjects, such as grammar and arithmetic, better than women do, but because of the influence a strong man teacher exerts on the character of a growing boy. The record of supply and demand since the equal pay schedule became operative will be the history of all subsequent periods until the board of education can offer men teachers salaries which will compare favorably with the salaries obtainable in other vocations.

"Men appointed to the elementary grades below the seventh year cannot receive more than $720 until after three years of service, and thereafter can advance only $60 per year to a maximum of $1,500. That this is a most serious matter is proved not alone by the fact that the supply of men teachers has been exhausted, but that many schools that need men teachers have been unable to get them.

"Three expedients for keeping up the supply of men teachers may be suggested. One is to raise salaries of both men and women to a living wage for men. Such a measure is unnecessary to obtain good women teachers and it would thus cause vast and needless expense. A second is to abandon the equal pay policy and increase the salaries of men teachers until the supply equals the demand. A third way is to adopt some system of adequate payment for 'superior merit.'"

Symptoms Mean What? Physician Advises Men.

(From Health Record.)

A general failure of the vital organs, such as the stomach, liver, kidneys, heart, etc., to perform to the full extent their normal duties is responsible for many symptoms, often classed as "diseases" by the unlearned. However, such symptoms are not to be regarded lightly for they are the forerunners of disease and premature decline. These symptoms are in the nature of warnings of the approach of low vitality, despondency, brain fag, and all the more or less dreaded ailments to which mankind is heir.

The faithful use of the prescription given below will so establish the normal natural functions of the various organs of the body as to cause to disappear all of the following symptoms: Despondency, fatigue, dull, sunken eyes, cold extremities, pains in small of back, pains in back of head, spots before the eyes, weakness in spine, twitching and trembling, impaired memory, loss of appetite, wasting to thinness (or overfat), shrunken, flabby flesh, premature wrinkles, dull headaches, constipation, kidney irregularities, irritability and a general breakdown of ambitious spirit and manliness.

First get compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment, even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full bounding health and all the happiness accompanying it the above home treatment is given.

LITTLE GIRL CURED OF AN AWFUL COLD.

"Two years ago our little girl had an awful cold that settled on her lungs," says Mrs. Wm. Galbraith, Hamburg, N. Y. "We were greatly worried about her condition. She had a persistent croupy cough that clung to her despite all our treatment, until I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation relieved that dreadful cough and choking and effected a positive cure in the course of a few days' time." For sale by all dealers.

Expert Interprets Dances After Two School Affairs Have Been Stopped.

Saginaw, Mich., Feb. 21.—Fifty members of the Saginaw high school faculty and students, who have objected to having their dancing of the "Boston" and the "tango" stopped, watched an interpretation of these dances by a Detroit instructor here recently. Principal Warner wrote and asked her to come and shew them how the dances should be given. This action followed the stopping of two high school affairs.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION CURED.

"I had been troubled with chronic constipation for two years and tried all the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me. Two packages of Chamberlain's Tablets cured me," writes Thos. E. Williams, of Middleboro, Ky. For sale by all dealers.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Plentiful moisture over the entire winter crop belt eased prices today in wheat. Offerings, however, were light. Accordingly the market, especially the May option, rallied in sympathy with liral cables. The opening was ¼@½c lower. May started at 92⅝c to 92⅝@92¾c, a loss of ⅛@¼c to ¼c, touched 93@93⅛c and steadied at 92⅝c.
The close was steady with May ⅛c net lower at 92⅝c.
Corn—May opened a shade off to ⅛c up at 52⅛c to 52⅛@52⅜c and advanced to 52⅝@52¾c.
The close was steady at 52½c for May, ⅛@⅜c above last night.
Notwithstanding meager demand, oats hardened owing to corn strength. May, which started unchanged to a sixteenth higher at 34@34⅛c to 34⅛c, rose to 34⅜c.
Sarcity of hogs gave provisions an upturn. First sales ranged from last night's level to 5@7½c higher, with May $17.82½ to $17.85 for pork, $10.62½@10.65 for lard and $10.50 for ribs.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 21.—Opening transactions in stocks showed few important changes, but sales in the first five minutes of trading disclosed a definite downward drift. Reading was sold heavily and lost a point. Canadian Pacific dropped 2½. Studebaker and Chesapeake & Ohio one point.
Concerted support, which appeared when bears made a demonstration at the opening today, led to heavy covering which put the favorite stocks gradually higher. Among the inactive stocks declines in some cases amounted to several points. Bonds were steady.
The market closed heavy.
Intermittent selling of the general list resulted from the progressive downward movement in Southern Pacific, which touched 99.
The canty offering, however, did not make much of an impression on values.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

New York, Feb. 21.—Prime mercantile paper, 5 per cent.; sterling exchange steady, with actual business in banker's bills at 483.15 for 60-day bills and at 487.50 for demand; commercial bills 482¾; bar silver, 51⅝c; Mexican dollars, 48¾c; government bonds, steady; railroad bonds, heavy.
Money on call, easier, 2½@3½ per cent.; ruling rate, 3½ per cent.; closing bid, 2¾ per cent.; offered at 3¾ per cent.; time loans, easier; 60 and 90 days and six months, 4½@4¾ per cent.

Remains Under Guard.

Madero remained all night under guard in his room at the national palace, together with Suarez and Garza. Madero has not been permitted to see the members of his family.
Provisional President Huerta, who long ago pleaded with Madero for promotions for a number of officers of the regular army, today promoted four generals and a number of inferior officers of the line. The generals are Aurelio Blanquet, Joaquin Maas, Alberto Yarza and Cauz, all of whom took an active part in the street fighting.
All of the newspapers of the capitol have made their reappearance. Editorially most of them comment with keen satisfaction on the governmental changes, but almost all of them carry a slight trace of skepticism regarding the early restoration of peace throughout the republic and advise stern and prompt action.

amendments to it might be fought out in the open on the floor of the senate. The people are entitled to know where the democratic party stands on this measure and if this bill is to be amended before its passage, so that it will be worthless as a law, or if it is to be killed, the people are entitled to know the influences that defeated the public will."

"Roller Towel" Bill Fails.

The Curtis senate bill providing for uniform text books in high schools, amended so as to permit either the grammatical or conversational method of teaching German, passed the house. Representative Stahl, of Fountain county, declared the bill would save the school patrons $100,000 annually. He said migratory families, usually in poor circumstances, will have a boon if the bill becomes a law.
The "roller towel" bill of Representative Adam calling for the annual payment of $20 license fee by hotels and lodging houses and the creation of a hotel inspector at a salary of $1,800 a year, failed in passage for lack of a constitutional majority. The bill eliminates the roller towel, the public drinking cup, prescribes sheets 99 inches long and 81 inches wide and provides that bed bugs and other vermin shall not be permitted in hotels and lodging houses.
Representative Combs, of Clinton county, wanted to know if the "chief bug killer" would come from Indianapolis, to which Representative Lyendecker replied:
"There are no bugs in Marion county."

High Cost of Living.

The high cost of living entered into the debate on the Deck bill providing an appropriation of $25,000 annually for two years to increase the output of hog cholera serum at Purdue university, which passed the house today 93 to 1, Representative Benz, of Crawford county, voting no. "Formerly I sold dressed hogs at $5 a hundred, now I receive $9," declared Representative Dunmire, a farmer of Elkhart county. "The ravages of hog cholera are directly responsible for the increase of the price. This bill is of vital interest not only to the farmer, but also to city dwellers, who must pay the increased cost."
Representative Combs, of Clinton county, argued the enactment of the measure would tend to decrease the cost of pork, and other farmer members made similar statements.
It was explained the appropriation would enable the Purdue station to supply farmers with enough additional serum above the present output to inoculate 60,000 hogs.
The Rheuff bill requiring incorporated towns to pay a share of the salary of township trustees and advisory boards and also a share of the expense of local option elections, was voted down, 43 to 28.

With Divided Report.

The Weidler bill providing for the calling of a constitutional convention this year came out of the committee on election with a divided report, the majority favoring passage. Two members, Representatives W. W. Spencer and Carroll signing a minority report to postpone indefinitely the measure, and Representatives Biddle and Roland failing to sign either report.
Representatives Cravens presented a bill giving the state board of finance authority to negotiate temporary loans to meet casual deficits in the state treasury the loans not to extend longer than the time of the next semi-annual settlement of the state treasurer.
Representative Schaefer, of Muncie, sent up a bill to equalize the salary of county auditors. The salary is fixed on a basis of 1.88 per cent on thue valuation of the taxable property of the county.
Representative Lyday, of Clinton, had a bill creating a joint commission of coal operators and miners to codify the laws on mining, and to agree on sites for erection and rescue stations in mining districts.
The committee on labor reported favorably the Mitchell bill prohibiting the employment of other than regular employes as train crews on railroad trains, and the Stotzenburg senate bill permitting the employment of convicts from the state penal institutions on the highways when there is no work within the walls.
A number of senate and house bills were advanced to first and second reading.

Shively in Criticism.

Senator Shively, of Marion, in a statement today criticized the action of the caucus yesterday in putting further consideration of the utilities bill off until Monday.
"The fact of carrying the caucus over until Monday regardless of intent, cannot help but give to the enemies of the bill a chance to play their game," said the senator. "It is, in fact, the same old fight that has been waged since the introduction of the bill, namely, whether we will have a bill with teeth or a thing of putty.
"If these delays continue," said Senator Shively, "the democratic party will have to face a situation that will be decidedly embarrassing. Our party has a big majority in the legislature and we have gone on record favorable to a utility bill and the people are demanding that we keep our promise.

Approved by Senate.

The Stotzenburg amendments to the present constitution were given the stamp of approval today by the senate over the protest of republican and progressive members of that body. The final vote was 34 to 8.
Senator Clarke, of Indianapolis, was the only democrat to vote against the joint resolution carrying the proposed changes. He had submitted an amendment which would have opened the ballot box to women of the state, which was lost by a viva voce vote.
Opposition was voiced against the resolution because it provided for a "one-man consitution," because it did not express the true wishes of the people and might conflict in their minds with the proposed calling of a constitutional convention. Those who voted against the bill were Clarke, Cummons, Gavitt, Hibberd, Jenkins, Ratts, W. R. Wood and White. Those absent, Adams, Faulkner, Fleming, Hunt, Kistler, Sexson, Shively.
Senator W. R. Wood said that he had favored a constitutional convention ever since he had been a member of the body and had at a previous session had such a bill passed with but six votes against it. He declared that a part of the press in Indianapolis had said he had hypnotized the senate, which esulted in reconsideration of the bill and its subsequent defeat. He said the present constitution had many defects.

Calls It One-Man Proposition.

"But this is a one-man proposition, that is proposed. If a constitutional convention should be called delegates would be picked because of their friends. He declared there were people in the state who did not want a constitutional convention because it would "hurt their own selfish interests." He asserted the members of the legislature were not prepared to make a new constitution and that it would therefore be unwise to attempt to make one.
Senator Ratts urged the democratic senators to remember that they were there to represent the people and not some one political party and asked them to give the people a constitutional convention instead of the amendment. He declared that to let one man write the constitution would be to make the organic law of the state the foot ball of partisan politics.
When the vote was about to be taken Senator W. R. Wood arose with a substitute for the Stotzenburg resolution, which called for a constitutional convention. After a parliamentary fight the amendment to substitute was lost. When Senator Clark proposed his amendment to allow women to vote, the chair refused to recognize his call for roll call.

It is understood that the committee recommends the creation of a commission to exercise general control over corporations doing businessa across state lines and that it urges amendments to the Sherman law which will compel corporations to remain more independent in character than ab present and that will enforce competitive conditions.

Final Vote Monday.

The railroad physical valuation bill, passed by the house and favorably reported by the senate committee on inter-state commerce will be taken up in the senate Monday with an agreement for a final vote before adjournment that day. The bill would require the inter-state commerce commission to make a valuation of the physical property of all common carriers to secure a basis for the making of rates, and would give full control over issues of stocks and bonds to the commission.

Puts Moore Under Fire.

A resolution attacking Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, was introduced in the house today by Representative Akin, of New York. In a lengthy preamble it sets out that Mr. Moore is using his office to secure endorsements from employes of the weather bureau for his candidacy "to be secretary of agriculture in the next cabinet."
The resolution would authorize "action by congress to eliminate favoritism and partiality to various officials of the weather bureau for their loyalty in furthering the political schemes of Chief Fakir Moore, that he may receive the toe end of Woodrow Wilson's copper toed boot, and be relegated to the political scrap heap deserved by such political fakirs and badger game officials."

A NEW DOLLAR TO CHEAPEN LIVING

Professor Fisher, of Yale, Wants More Gold Put in a Coin.

VALUE DECREASING

New York, Feb. 21.—Laying the blame for the high cost of living, strikes, panics, commercial and financial crises and social unrest on the depreciation of the value of the gold dollar, Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale university, delivered an address at the Republican club.
Professor Fisher pictured all manner of evil to come if the gold dollar, depreciated by overproduction of the metal, were not standardized as a unit of value, instead of remaining a unit of weight, as at present. As a remedy he advocated adjustment in the weight of the gold dollar to meet the fluctuations in the government's index price of commodities.
"To my mind," said Professor Fisher, "the high cost of living is due to two causes—gold inflation and credit inflation. There has been no scarcity of goods, but since 1900 prices have risen higher in this country than in any other. Food has not become scarce. The per capita production of the ten leading crops of the United States shows an increase in the last fifteen years.
"We complain that the things we buy cost more money than formerly. It would help us if we should more often express it the other way about by saying that money has lost its purchasing power.

Value of Dollar Decreased.

"The weight of the gold dollar remains fixed, but its value or purchasing power does not. During the last fifteen years, although the gold dollar has remained the same in size, its purchasing power has fallen to two-thirds of the dollar of fifteen years ago. This shrinkage in the monetary yardstick has injured all those who expected to receive a fixed number of dollars—salaried men, wage earners, bondholders, savings bank depositors and many others.
"Wages have remained unchanged for months and years after the cost of living rose, and then have had to be pried up by force through strikes through which the whole public has suffered. In my own opinion, we owe the recent rise in prices, or, in other words, the shrinkage of the dollar, partly to the discovery of gold mines and of cheaper methods of gold extraction, partly to inflation of banking credits in the form of deposits subject to check and partly to other causes, notably the concentration of population in cities.
"I believe that, with some interruptions, the present rapid upward movement of prices is likely to continue for many years.
"Gold has become a sort of idol of business men. Only recently are they awakening to the fact that gold has tricked and swindled, not simply in recent years, but through all history. Instability in the dollar makes all business a gamble. Security of the dollar is the very essence of solid business prosperity.
"Evidently, if we have some way of knowing how much prices have risen, we can keep the purchasing power of our dollar fixed by adding to it the number of grains of gold necessary to keep it always buying the same amount of commodities. Today our dollar contains 25.8 grains of gold, nine-tenths fine. If prices were to rise, say one per cent, we would then add to the weight of our dollar one per cent of 25.8 grains, which would make our dollar weigh a little more than 26 grains of gold.

Adjustment of the Weight.

"The adjustment of the weight of our dollar would occur probably once a months. This scheme would convert our present gold standard into a multiple standard. If adopted, it would not disturb the outward appearance of the world's currencies. The ordinary man would not know that any change had occurred.
"It would make contracts in money more stable and just, and prevent lack of adjustment between interest, rents, salaries and wages on the one hand, which cannot change rapidly, and the cost of living, which can and does change rapidly.
"This scheme has been indorsed by hundreds of prominent men in various lines, statesmen and financiers, bankers, business men and economists. Sir David Barbour, the man most responsible for the introduction of the gold standard into India twenty years ago; John D. Farwell, of Chicago, president of the Citizens' League for Currency Reform; Paul Warburg, one of the keenest minds in Wall Street, have all indorsed the suggestion. Baron Sakatani, former minister of finance of Japan, writes that he has called together the economists of Tokio to consider the matter.
"Governor Wilson, the president elect, is greatly interested in this scheme. There is a bill now in the house of representatives for the purpose of obtaining an international conference on the subject, and the prospects are that it will go through. We need the light that only an international conference can give."

This is pay day week. We should be very busy tomorrow, so trade as early in the day as you can conveniently. We could not wait on all who came in the afternoon last Saturday.

APPLE LAND

Here is Your Opportunity Only $45.00 Per Acre

Compare this price to what others ask. It's foolishness to be carried away with a lot of hot-air promoters' promises, and led to believe that there is no apple land left, only at $200 to $500 per acre. My western travels have taught me different. I am about to divide 500 acres of as good fruit land as you will find in the United States, into 50 and 100 acre tracts. $45.00 per acre if you take 100 acres, otherwise $50.00 per acre for smaller tracts. In other words, I sell you 100 acres for about the same price others ask for 10 acres, and I guarantee every tract as represented or no sale. You run absolutely no risk when you deal with me. I would rather win your confidence than take your money. Consequently I make this exceptionally big offer. I will be pleased to meet you and talk California lands. Call, write or phone.

Will of C. M. Hays Leaves $10 Each to Four Daughters.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 21. The will of C. M. Hays, the Grand Trunk railway president, who lost his life in the Titanic disaster, filed here yesterday, disposed of an estate valued at $762,298, all of which goes to Mrs. Hays, the widow, with the exception of legacies of $10 to each of his four daughters and $25,000 to be divided between his sister and brother in equal amounts.

HOLDS RATES UNREASONABLE.

Transcontinental Rates on Lumber Held Up by Commission.

Washington, Feb. 21. Proposed increases from 20 to 50 per cent in transcontinental freight rates on lumber and some other commodities from North Pacific coast points by the Northern Pacific and Oregon Short Line through Silver Bow, Mont., were suspended today by the Interstate commerce commission until April 30, as unreasonable.
